

BASE PROSPECTUS

(incorporated with limited liability in the Republic of Finland)

EUR 15,000,000,000 Programme for the Issuance of Debt Instruments

On 10 March 1992 Pohjola Bank plc (the "Bank", "Pohjola" or "Pohjola Bank") established a Programme for the Issuance of Debt Instruments (the "Programme"). This base prospectus (the "Base Prospectus") supersedes the previous Base Prospectus dated 30 May 2013. Any Instruments (as defined below) issued under the Programme after the date hereof are issued subject to the provisions set out herein. This does not affect any Instruments issued prior to the date hereof.

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA"), which is the United Kingdom competent authority for the purposes of Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (the "Prospectus Directive") and relevant implementing measures in the United Kingdom, as a base prospectus issued in compliance with the Prospectus Directive and relevant implementing measures in the United Kingdom for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issue of instruments ("Instruments") issued under the Programme (other than Non-PD Instruments (as defined below)) described in this Base Prospectus during the period of twelve months after the date hereof. Applications have been made for such Instruments to be admitted during the period of twelve months after the date hereof to listing on the Official List of the FCA and to trading on the regulated market of the London Stock Exchange plc (the "London Stock Exchange"), which is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (2004/39/EC).

The Programme also permits Instruments to be issued on the basis that they will not be admitted to listing, trading on a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive in the European Economic Area and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system or may be admitted to listing, trading and for quotations by each other or further competent authorities, stock exchanges and/or quotation systems as may be agreed between the Bank and the relevant Dealer ("Non-PD Instruments"). Any Conditions not contained herein which are applicable to each Tranche (as defined in "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments") of Non-PD Instruments will be set out in a pricing supplement.

The FCA has neither reviewed nor approved the information contained in this Base Prospectus in relation to any issuance of Non-PD Instruments.

This Base Prospectus supersedes and replaces any previous Information Memorandum, Base Prospectus or Supplemental Base Prospectus relating to the Programme.

The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and may not be offered, sold or delivered in the United States or to, or for the benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Bank's long-term senior debt has been rated AA- (with negative outlook) by Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services Europe Limited ("S&P"), Aa3 (with negative outlook) by Moody's Investors Service Ltd ("Moody's") and A+ (with stable outlook) by Fitch Ratings Limited ("Fitch"). S&P, Moody's and Fitch are established in the European Economic Area ("EEA") and registered under Regulation (EU) No 1060/2009, as amended (the "CRA Regulation"). Tranches of Instruments issued under the Programme will be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Instruments is rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating(s) described above or the rating(s) assigned to Instruments already issued. Where a Tranche of Instruments is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the relevant Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, as applicable).

Investing in Instruments issued under the Programme involves certain risks. The principal risk factors that may affect the ability of the Bank to fulfil its obligations under the Instruments are discussed under "Risk Factors" below.

However, the Bank will in the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information included in this Base Prospectus, prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus or publish a new Base Prospectus for use in connection with any subsequent issue of the Instruments.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms and the offering, sale and delivery of the Instruments in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. - (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the Instruments and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (e) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Instruments are legal investments for it, (2) Instruments can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Instruments. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Instruments under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should read the entire Base Prospectus. Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this section. Investing in the Instruments involves certain risks. Set forth below are risk factors that the Bank believes are the principal risks involved in an investment in the Instruments but other factors may exist which the Bank may not consider to be significant based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently be able to anticipate. The Bank believes that the following may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under Instruments issued under the Programme. If any of these risks materialise, the price of the Instruments may decline and the investors could lose all or part of their investment. Prospective investors should read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Base Prospectus and reach their own views regarding the risks inherent in investing in Instruments issued under the Programme prior to making any investment decision. Except as otherwise indicated, these factors may or may not occur and the Bank is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such factor occurring:

Risks Relating to the Operations of Pohjola Group

Business Conditions and General Economy

The profitability of Pohjola Bank's operations is affected by several factors, the most important being the general economic conditions in Finland or globally, volatility of interest rates and equity prices, changes in exchange rates, and the competitive situation. Factors such as the development of public finances and general price, income and the employment levels as well as the development of companies' willingness to invest, the savings level of households and development of insurance claims may affect the volume and performance of Pohjola Bank's business as well as its financial condition. An economic downturn in Finland or globally could adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Uncertainties and disruptions in the global credit markets and the economic crisis in the Eurozone, coupled with the repricing of credit risk, have created increasingly difficult conditions in the financial markets during the last few years. These conditions have resulted in historic volatility, less liquidity, widening of credit spreads and a lack of price transparency in certain markets. Moreover these conditions have resulted in the failures of a number of financial institutions, inter alia, in the United States and Europe, as well as unprecedented action by governmental authorities and central banks around the world. As a result of the crisis in the world economy, the continued economic problems in the Eurozone and the substantial recovery packages implemented to address these concerns, the economic outlook is still overshadowed by a government debt crisis, which has been reflected as uncertainty in the financial market.

Factors such as the liquidity of the global financial markets, level and volatility of equity prices, exchange rates, commodity prices and interest rates, inflation, and availability and cost of credit could materially affect the activity level of Pohjola Bank's customers. Higher interest rates could adversely affect the values of balance sheet and off-balance sheet assets of Pohjola Bank by increasing the risk that a greater number of its customers would be unable to meet their obligations. Increasing volatility could also cause losses in Pohjola Bank's trading portfolios. The continuity of financial uncertainty and possible economic fluctuations may result in a decline in the volume of transactions that Pohjola Bank executes for its customers and, therefore, lead to a decline in the income it receives from fees and commissions. For example, a higher level of domestic or foreign interest rates or a downturn in the securities markets could affect the flows of assets under management and the fees Pohjola Bank earns for managing assets.

It is difficult to predict how long these conditions will exist or whether they will worsen and how Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition will be adversely affected. These conditions may lead to growing credit losses as Pohjola Bank's customers may be unable to meet their payment obligations.

In the opinion of Pohjola Bank's management, there is still significant uncertainty about economic prospects and the operating environment. The main risks of Pohjola Bank are, in the near future, associated with developments in credit spreads, interest rates, share prices and share price volatility, loan impairments and funding costs, as well as the general operating environment. Pohjola Bank's management may be able to mitigate such possibly negative effects on investment and trading by carefully selecting investment assets, diversifying risks, promoting Pohjola Bank's personnel's professional skills and carrying out risk management effectively. Nevertheless, developments in the general operating environment are generally beyond the control of Pohjola Bank's management. The insufficient recovery of the markets or deterioration and deepening of the economic downturn could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations or financial condition.

Credit Risks

The most significant risk for a bank is credit risk. Estimating the potential write-downs in Pohjola Bank's loan portfolio is difficult and depends on many factors, including general economic conditions, credit rating migration of customers and counterparties, management of credits by customers or changes in their ability to repay loans, the realisation value of collateral positions, structural and technological changes within industries and other external factors such as legal and other regulatory requirements.

The objective of credit risk management is to price the customer a specific credit risk and include it in credit margins as well as to minimise it by using collaterals and financial covenants. Estimating and pricing credit risks as well as the realisation value and time of collaterals is, however, uncertain, and therefore the possible write-downs could adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition. There is no guarantee that loss estimates will reflect actual future losses. If such estimates prove to be inaccurate or inadequate, Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

The growth of Pohjola Bank's loan portfolio amounted to 5 per cent. in 2013. Uncertainty relating to the growth of Gross Domestic Product, exports and capital spending yet exists, having possible influence on corporate payment defaults, bankruptcies, margin development, and unemployment. Pohjola Bank's loan portfolio growth could also be constrained by, among other factors, Pohjola Bank's inability to increase lending volumes to customers that meet its credit quality standards or reduced access to funding due to uncertain performance of debt capital markets influenced by factors such as governments' indebtedness.

Despite the generation of interest income, the growth of Pohjola Bank's loan portfolio may also have negative effects. The growth of the loan portfolio in the current market environment may subsequently result in loan losses as Pohjola Bank's customers may be unable to meet their obligations. If Pohjola Bank is unable to maintain its loan portfolio margin and simultaneously good credit quality, Pohjola Bank may not generate sufficient interest income to offset any increased funding cost or it may suffer credit losses, which could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition. Pohjola Bank is exposed to the risk that borrowers may not repay their loans according to their contractual terms and that the collateral securing the payment of these loans may be insufficient. Accordingly, Pohjola Bank may experience significant credit losses, which could have a material adverse effect on its profits.

Pohjola Bank regularly reviews and analyses its loan portfolio and credit risks. Despite lower impairment charges and low level of doubtful receivables relative to the loan and guarantee portfolio, some of Pohjola Bank's corporate customers still face a challenging operating environment. The greatest uncertainty related to Pohjola Bank's risk exposure is still associated with future impairment charges on the loan portfolio. The uncertainty of the magnitude and duration of the current market situation makes it difficult to estimate the size of any future loan losses. Due to the current market situation, it is however likely that Pohjola Bank will encounter a number of non-performing loans. If the level of credit losses and non-performing loans is higher than anticipated, it may have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Concentration of Credit Risk

A majority of the amount of Pohjola Bank's credit, guarantee and other exposure to corporate customers comprises liabilities that relate to Finnish corporate customers. Pohjola Bank's total exposure also includes relatively major customer specific credit risk concentrations. Major customer exposure includes corporate customers and non-profit customers whose direct exposure exceeds 10 per cent. of Pohjola Group's capital base. As at 31 March 2014 Pohjola Group's capital base for the purpose of calculating the major customer exposures totalled EUR 3.4 billion (EUR 2.1 billion on 31 December 2013). No single customer's exposure exceeded 10 per cent. of Pohjola Group's own funds and thus there were no large customer exposures at the end of 31 March 2014.

On 31 March 2014, the most significant industries measured by the exposure to the corporate and housing association included Wholesale and Retail Trade representing 10.2 per cent. (on 31 December 2013: 10.2 per cent.), Renting and Operating of Residential Real Estate representing 9.7 per cent. (on 31 December 2013: 9.9 per cent.) and Manufacture of Machinery and Equipment representing 9.1 per cent. (on 31 December 2013: 9.1 per cent.). A total of 50 per cent. of exposures within Renting and Operating of Residential Real Estate were guaranteed by the Finnish general government. However, more than by industry specific concentration, Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected by the geographical risk concentration in Finland. Pohjola Bank's level of credit loss provisions and credit losses may increase if economic conditions in Finland do not recover as expected or if large borrowers become unable to perform their obligations. Should such events materialise, they could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Pohjola Bank has also participated in acquisition financing by both industrial and financial buyers (including private equity investors) in relation to several industries in Finland. In some cases Pohjola Bank has been the primary lender but in a number of instances Pohjola Bank has also taken part in financing acquisitions with a smaller share of the total financing, in which cases Pohjola Bank's abilities to influence the joint decision making of the lenders relating to, among others, actions relating to securing interests of the lenders, and possible reorganisations, are generally limited. In case, for example, companies purchased by financial buyers (including private equity investors), or other companies in whose financing Pohjola Bank has taken part, would be unable to meet their obligations, this could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Price Development in Money, Foreign Exchange and Capital Markets

The most significant market risks Pohjola Bank faces are interest rate, foreign exchange, credit spread risks, equity price and volatility risks. Changes in interest rate levels, yield curves and credit spreads may affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition. Changes in currency rates affect the value of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as well as Pohjola Bank's earnings and may affect revenues from foreign exchange dealing. The price development of financial markets may cause changes in the value of Pohjola Bank's investment and trading portfolios, and liquidity reserves, and in the amount of revenues generated from assets under management. Pohjola Bank complies with market risk management principles and policies, which are confirmed by the Board of Directors. The purpose of the risk management principles and policies is to ensure that Pohjola Group (as defined on page 76-78) is not exposed to market risks that are excessive in relation to its risk-bearing capacity. However, it is difficult to predict accurately changes in economic and/or market conditions and the effects that such changes could have on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition. If financial markets perform against expectations and/or if prepared estimates and predictions prove to be inaccurate or inadequate, Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

In addition to the changes in market prices, the illiquidity of certain markets, such as structured products, private equity or real estate markets, or the decreased liquidity of the financial markets in general can have an effect on Pohjola Bank. Pohjola Bank may either be unable to sell certain assets or it may be required to sell certain assets at a reduced price, which can have a negative impact on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

There is no certainty that the market risks involved with the uncertain economic and market conditions will not adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition as described above.

Systemic Risks

Payment defaults, bank runs and other types of financial distress or difficulties in a foreign or domestic bank or other financial institution may lead to a series of liquidity problems, losses and payment and other difficulties in other companies operating in the financial sector, due to the interconnectedness of the domestic and global financial systems and capital markets. If one financial institution experiences difficulties it could have spillover effects on other institutions through, for example, lending, trading, clearing and other linkages between financial institutions. This risk is called a "systemic risk" and it can have a significant negative impact on markets in which Pohjola Bank operates on a daily basis which can, in turn, adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Liquidity Risk and Availability of Funding

Pohjola Bank, as the central bank of OP-Pohjola Group (as defined on page 85-86), is responsible for the whole OP-Pohjola Group's liquidity and funding from money and capital markets. Liquidity risk means the risk of Pohjola Bank being unable to meet its payment obligations and to refinance its loans when they fall due, and to meet its obligations as a creditor. The risk could materialise if market conditions worsen substantially and Pohjola Bank is unable to maintain adequate liquidity. Furthermore, a substantial downgrade of Pohjola Bank's credit rating could adversely affect the availability and price of Pohjola Bank's funding and as a consequence weaken Pohjola Bank's results of operations and financial condition.

Competition

The financial services market remains highly competitive in the markets where Pohjola Bank operates. Innovative competition comes both from established players and a steady stream of new market entrants. The market is expected to remain highly competitive in all of Pohjola Bank's business divisions, which could adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Capital Adequacy

Pohjola Bank's banking licence is dependent upon, among other things, the fulfilment of capital adequacy requirements in accordance with the applicable regulations which are the Finnish Act on Credit Institutions (Laki luottolaitostoinnista, 9.2.2007/121), as amended or replaced, or the Act on Amalgamations of Deposit Banks (Laki talletuspankkien yhteenliittymästä 599/2010), as amended and the regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms (Regulation (EU) No 575/2013, the "CRD IV Regulation"). Under these acts and regulation Pohjola Bank is supervised by the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority (including any successor or substituting authority thereto, the "FFSA"). Pohjola Bank's capital structure and capital adequacy ratio may have an effect on Pohjola Bank's credit ratings and the availability and costs of funding operations. Moreover, the absence of a sufficiently strong capital base may constrain Pohjola Bank's growth and strategic options. Significant unforeseen losses may create a situation under which Pohjola Bank is unable to maintain its desired capital structure.

Capital adequacy calculations show the ratios of Pohjola Bank's capital in relation to risk-weighted assets. The capital position is affected by, for example, profit after tax, the distribution of dividends, goodwill, changes in the fair value reserve and insurance company investments, as well as the difference between impairments and expected loan losses. Risk-weighted assets are affected by, for example, the amount of lending and the risk ratings of the loans and other receivables and assets as well as market and operational risks. In the current market environment there is also a significant risk of decreases in credit worthiness for Pohjola Bank's customers which will increase the risk-weighted items under the current Basel II rules. Furthermore, Pohjola Bank's capital adequacy is related to the availability of additional capital in the future. Pohjola Bank's non-life insurance companies must also fulfil capital adequacy requirements set for non-life insurance companies. If the non-life insurance companies are not able to fulfil these capital adequacy requirements, Pohjola Bank could be required to capitalise the insurance companies or this could affect Pohjola Bank's growth and attainment of strategic goals.

Negative changes in the capital adequacy position, such as a decrease in equity or an increase in risk-weighted items could have an adverse effect on the availability and cost of Pohjola Bank's funding and, consequently, have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Related to Derivatives Positions

Pohjola Bank is engaged in derivatives business both for its customers and for its own account by trading in derivatives instruments, such as forwards, futures, foreign exchange agreements and options. As at 31 December 2013, the total derivatives nominal value was EUR 221,803 million (EUR 202,079 million as at 31 December 2012) of which the nominal value of the interest rate derivatives was EUR 199,378 (EUR 176,678 million as at 31 December 2012). Fair value for derivatives assets was EUR 3,494 million (EUR 4,684 million as at 31 December 2012) and derivatives liabilities EUR 3,297 million (EUR 4,547 million as at 31 December 2012). In recent years Pohjola Bank's derivatives business has grown and the variety of derivatives products offered has increased. The value of derivatives contracts depends on, inter alia, changes in the value of the contract's underlying asset, price fluctuations, changes in interest rate levels and credit risk margins and maturity date of the contract. The risks related to the derivatives business include failures in assessing the fair value of the underlying asset or the securities, and the risk that Pohjola Bank is unable to realise the derivative position on favourable terms or at all, due to market conditions. Further, a risk related to the derivatives business is that the derivative counterparty has not understood the liabilities created for it by the contract or cannot perform its obligations, or that the collateral set by the contract counterparty to Pohjola Bank proves to be inadequate. The operational risks in derivatives business include, among other things, possible process risks related to inadequate documentation and collateral management. The materialisation of the aforementioned risks could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risk management has a central role in the derivatives business and Pohjola Bank continuously develops its risk management related to its derivatives business. The growth in derivatives business places increasing demands on risk management. There can be no assurance that Pohjola Bank's risk management will be in the future able to completely manage all risks related to Pohjola Bank's derivatives business, due to, for example, possible inadequacies in systems, methods and procedures or human errors. Despite continuous development of risk management, Pohjola Bank's risk management may be insufficient to effectively manage risks related to a larger volume and more complicated instruments. Should Pohjola Bank's risk management prove to be inadequate, this could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

In anticipation of entry into force of central counterparty clearing required by the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012), Pohjola Bank plc started in February 2013 central counterparty clearing in London Clearing House for new interest rate derivatives covering standardised OTC derivative transactions entered into with financial counterparties.

Notwithstanding anything in this risk factor, this risk factor should not be taken as implying that Pohjola Bank will be unable to comply with its obligations as a company with securities admitted to the Official List of the FCA or as a supervised firm regulated by the FCA.

Risk Relating to Joint Liability of the Member Credit Institutions

Under the Act on Amalgamations of Deposit Banks (Laki talletuspankkien yhteenliittymästä 599/2010) (the "Amalgamations Act"), OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative (the "Central Cooperative") and Pohjola Bank, Helsinki OP Bank plc, OP Card Company Plc, OP Mortgage Bank, OP Process Services Ltd, and the Member Cooperative Banks (together the "Member Credit Institutions"), are jointly responsible for such liabilities of the Central Cooperative or of any other Member Credit Institutions being in liquidation that cannot be met from the funds of the Central Cooperative or such Member Credit Institutions.

The Central Cooperative is liable to pay to its Member Credit Institution an amount that is necessary in order to prevent the Member Credit Institution's liquidation. The Central Cooperative is liable for the debts of a Member Credit Institution that cannot be paid from the Member Credit Institution's own funds.

A Member Credit Institution is liable to pay to the Central Cooperative its own share of the amount which the Central Cooperative has paid either to another Member Credit Institution as a support action described above, or to a creditor of another Member Credit Institution as payment of a due debt for which the creditor has not received payment from his debtor. Furthermore, a Member Credit Institution has, on the insolvency of the Central Cooperative, an unlimited liability to pay the debts of the Central Cooperative as set out in Chapter 14 of the Act on Cooperatives. This could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Member Credit Institution's liability for the amount which the Central Cooperative has paid on behalf of one Member Credit Institution to its creditors is divided between the Member Credit Institutions in proportion to their last confirmed balance sheet totals.

Notwithstanding the joint responsibility between the Member Credit Institutions, there is no guarantee in place which directly ensures the repayment of Instruments issued under this Programme. The payment obligations under the Instruments are solely obligations of Pohjola Bank and are not obligations of, and are not guaranteed by, the Central Cooperative.

Strategic Risk

Strategic risk refers to losses incurred as a result of an erroneous business strategy. Strategic risk connected with the central priority and development policy lines for OP-Pohjola Group's operations is reduced through continuous planning that is based on analyses and forecasts of customers' future needs, the trend in different lines of business and market areas as well as the competitive situation.

In October 2012, Pohjola's Board of Directors adopted Pohjola Group's updated strategy and revised financial targets. The updated strategy highlights the following: improving customer experience, seeking more targeted growth in order to improve return on capital, making more efficient use of OP-Pohjola

Group's competitive advantages and strengths, improving efficiency and increasing capital adequacy ratios. Banking will concentrate on deepening customer relationships by focusing growth on business and products with high capital efficiency. Non-life Insurance aims to continue its successful cross-selling and improve efficiency. Within Asset Management, the key objective is to raise investment returns of OP Mutual Funds to a competitive level and to intensify OP-Pohjola Group's integration. Although Pohjola Bank has made progress in integrating the banking and non-life insurance businesses, there is no certainty that Pohjola Bank will successfully complete the integration process, or that Pohjola Bank in the future can successfully cross-sell products and services to its customer base.

If Pohjola Bank is unable to successfully execute its strategy, this will have a materially adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition. Also, Pohjola Bank's strategy may not be competitive or may be insufficient to meet customer requirements in the future as competition increases and customer offerings develop in the markets internationally. If Pohjola Bank cannot adapt its strategy to meet these requirements, this could have a materially adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Relating to Acquisitions

Pohjola Bank may consider strategic acquisitions and partnerships from time to time. There can be no guarantee that Pohjola Bank will be successful in the implementation of plans regarding acquisitions and strategic partnerships or that the acquisitions and the implementation thereof will be materialised according to expectations. Pohjola Bank has to base any assessment with respect to operations, profitability and other matters of potential acquisitions and partnerships on inexact and incomplete information and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect.

Pohjola Bank can give no guarantee that its expectations with regard to integration and synergies will materialise.

Risks Relating to Operational Areas in the Baltic Countries

Pohjola Group engages in non-life insurance operations in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania through Seesam Insurance AS subsidiary. Pohjola Bank provides corporate customer services through the branch offices in all of the Baltic countries. Corporate customer services in the Baltic countries consist of payment and liquidity management and working capital, leasing and investment financing. Baltic banking activities are still minimal, amounting to around 2 per cent. of Pohjola Bank's total corporate exposure.

Even though Pohjola Group has significant amount of experience in banking and non-life insurance operations in Finland, these fields in the Baltic countries differ from the Finnish market to a significant extent, which translates into additional risks, related to a different operational environment, legislation, administrative differences, workforce regulations and taxation affairs. The economic situation in the Baltic countries is, like in emerging markets as well as in the rest of the world, currently volatile, which results a demanding business environment. Pohjola Bank has endeavoured to research the Baltic banking market, both through its own studies and through commissioned market research, but there is no certainty that the financial results from the operations in the Baltic countries will meet Pohjola Bank's expectations.

In addition, Pohjola Bank is affected by foreign exchange risks due to its Baltic operations as the financing is mainly in local currencies. For example, a possible devaluation of the Baltic currencies would have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's financial condition. Foreign exchange risk has partially decreased as Estonia changed over to the Euro in 2011. The failure of operations in the Baltic area could have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Credit Risk Relating to the Bank

Holders of the Instruments take a credit risk on the Bank. A holder's ability to receive payment under the Instruments is dependent on the Bank's ability to fulfil its payment obligations, which is in turn dependent upon the development of the Bank's business.

Regulatory Compliance

Pohjola Bank operates within a highly regulated industry and its activities are subject to extensive supervisory and regulatory regimes including, in particular, regulation in Finland, in the Baltic countries and in the European Union. Pohjola Bank must meet the requirements set forth in the regulations regarding, inter alia, minimum capital and capital adequacy, reporting with respect to financial information and financial condition, liabilities and payment of dividends as well as regulations regarding the amalgamation (described on page 11). In addition, certain decisions made at Pohjola Bank may require advance approval or notification to the relevant authorities.

One or more supervisory authorities may apply or execute the applicable regulations. Authorities may question Pohjola Bank's activities in accordance with the applicable regulations with regard to one or more regulations. If it is found that Pohjola Bank breaches the regulations or fails to comply with them, the non-compliance could lead to fines, public reprimands, and other consequences causing damage to Pohjola Bank's reputation, enforced suspension of operations or, in extreme cases, amendment to or withdrawal of authorisation to operate. Pohjola Bank may also be liable for damages caused by the activities of Pohjola Bank.

As a result of the financial crisis, the regulatory framework for banks' capital adequacy requirements became more rigorous. The new Capital Requirement Directive and Regulation (CRD IV Directive/CRD IV Regulation) was published in the EU Official Journal on 27 June 2013. These new rules and regulations entered into force on 1 January 2014 and will implement the Basel III standards within the EU during 2014–19. These regulatory changes are aimed, for example, at improving the quality of banks' capital base, reducing the cyclic nature of capital requirements, decreasing banks' indebtedness and setting quantitative limits to liquidity risk.

From Pohjola's perspective, the most important individual change in the regulations relates to the treatment of insurance holdings within a banking-led financial and insurance conglomerate. On 27 November 2013, Pohjola and OP-Pohjola Group received permission from the FFSA to treat insurance holdings within the conglomerate as risk-weighted assets. The method applied to insurance holdings leads to a risk-weight of approximately 280 per cent. The permission will be valid from 1 January 2014 until 31 December 2014 at the latest. As a result of the European Central Bank (the "ECB") taking over supervisory responsibilities for OP-Pohjola Group as credit institution, the ECB will decide on whether any further special permission is given to OP-Pohjola Group.

The requirements for capital buffers implemented through national legislation will add to capital requirements but the schedule for their implementation depends on national legislation which is in draft phase. The upcoming liquidity regulation will add liquidity management costs. Profitability will play a key role when preparing for regulatory changes.

As part of OP-Pohjola Group, Pohjola Bank as credit institution will be subject to direct supervision by the ECB in November 2014 under the current plan. The ECB will conduct an asset quality review (AQR) and stress test of OP-Pohjola Group as credit institution during 2014, in which Pohjola Bank will participate.

Changes in the insurance sector's Solvency II regulations aim to improve the quality of insurance companies' capital base, improve their risk management, increase the risk-based capital requirements and harmonise insurance sector solvency requirements in Europe. The regulations are still being processed, and are scheduled to come into effect at the beginning of 2016.

Other areas where changes could have an impact include, inter alia:

- monetary policy, interest rate and other policies of central banks and regulatory authorities;
- general changes in government or regulatory policy that may significantly influence investors' decisions to invest in particular markets in which Pohjola Bank operates;
- changes in the regulatory requirements, for example in the derivatives markets;
- changes in competitive and pricing environments; and
- changes in the financial reporting environment.

Changes in legislation, regulations and procedures of the authorities, interpretations concerning their application as well as court decisions could adversely affect the business, results of operations and financial condition as well as the trading price of the shares of Pohjola Bank.

Legal and Litigation Risks

Pohjola Bank's customers' or counterparties' claims against Pohjola Bank may result in legal proceedings. These risks include, among other, potential liability for the sale of unsuitable products to its customers (mis-selling) or managing customer portfolios against customer instructions due to, for example, human error or negligence, as well as potential liability for the advice that Pohjola Bank provides to participants in securities transactions, or liability under securities or other laws in connection with securities offerings. Should Pohjola Bank be found to have breached its obligations, it may be obligated to pay damages. Such potential litigation could also have a negative impact on Pohjola Bank's reputation among its customers and counterparties. Furthermore, Pohjola Bank may face material adverse consequences if contractual obligations were not enforceable as intended or they were enforced in a manner adverse to Pohjola Bank or in case it would become apparent that Pohjola Bank's intellectual property rights or systems were not adequately protected or in operating condition.

The materialisation of any legal risks such as described above or any potential damages to be paid by Pohjola Bank or the loss of its reputation may be substantial and could have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Tax Risks

Tax risk refers to the risk associated with changes in, or errors in the interpretation of, taxation rates or law. This could result in increased charges or financial loss. Although Pohjola Bank devotes considerable resources to managing tax risk, a failure to manage this risk could adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risk Management

Core values, strategic goals and financial targets form the basis for risk and capital adequacy management at Pohjola Bank. The purpose of Pohjola Bank's risk management is to identify threats and opportunities affecting strategy implementation. The objective is to help achieve the targets set in the strategy by ensuring that risks are proportional to Pohjola Bank's risk-bearing capacity.

Even though Pohjola Bank's personnel follow the guidelines issued on risk management and implement measures which mitigate losses, there can be no certainty that these measures would be fully adequate to manage and control risks. Some of the qualitative tools and metrics used by Pohjola Bank for risk management purposes are based upon the use of observed historical market behaviour as well as future predictions. These tools and metrics may fail to predict or predict incorrectly future risk exposures which could lead to losses for Pohjola Bank. Factors described above or any other failure in risk management could cause substantial losses and adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Operational Risks

Operational risk refers to the risk of financial loss or other harmful consequences resulting from inadequate or failed processes, systems or external events. Operational risk may also materialise in terms of loss or deterioration of reputation or trust.

The most significant, identified operational risks pertain to systems, business processes, the accuracy of documentation, and the allocation of resources.

Operational risks are qualitative in nature and Pohjola Bank cannot ever fully hedge against them. Operational risk management is aimed at ensuring that no unforeseeable financial consequences or loss of reputation arise from operational risks.

The occurrence of any of these risks could adversely affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Notwithstanding anything in this risk factor, this risk factor should not be taken as implying that Pohjola Bank will be unable to comply with its obligations as a company with securities admitted to the Official List of the FCA or as a supervised firm regulated by the FCA.

System and Information Security Risks

Pohjola Bank's daily operations involve a large number of transactions, many of which are highly complex and which rely on the secure processing, storage and transfer of confidential and other information in Pohjola Bank's IT systems and information networks. Even though Pohjola Bank utilises protective systems, Pohjola Bank's IT system, equipment and network may be susceptible to unauthorised use, computer viruses and other harmful factors.

Furthermore, Pohjola Bank's operations depend on confidential and secure data processing. As part of its business operations, Pohjola Bank stores personal and banking and insurance specific information provided by its customers which in Finland and in the Baltic countries are subject to certain regulations concerning privacy protection and banking secrecy. Pohjola Bank may accrue substantial costs in case information security risks materialise. Solving the system and information security problems may cause interruptions or delays in Pohjola Bank's customer service, which could have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's reputation and prompt customers to abandon Pohjola Bank's services or to present Pohjola Bank with claims for compensation. Furthermore, if Pohjola Bank fails to effectively implement new IT systems or to adapt to new technological developments, it may incur substantial additional expenses or be unable to compete successfully in the market. Any one of the aforementioned factors could have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations or financial condition.

Furthermore, Pohjola Bank relies to a considerable extent on its parent organisation's, the OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative's, subsidiary OP-Services Ltd with regards to maintaining IT systems and providing IT services. Even though Pohjola Bank has sought to secure the provision of IT services that are critical to its operations by contractual arrangements, and by also using alternative service providers with regard to certain IT service elements, any failure by OP-Services Ltd and its cooperating partners to maintain IT systems or deliver agreed services as Pohjola Bank requires could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business.

Possible Interruptions to Pohjola Bank's Business Operations

Pohjola Bank's business may be in danger of being interrupted due to sudden and unforeseeable events, such as disruptions to the distribution of power and data communications or water and fire damage. Pohjola Bank may not be able to control such events within the scope of its present business continuity plans which may cause interruptions to business operations. Unforeseen events can also lead to additional operating costs, such as renovation and repairing costs, damages claims from customers affected by these events, higher insurance premiums and the need for redundant back-up systems. Insurance coverage for certain unforeseen risks may also be unavailable, and thus increase the risk for Pohjola Bank. Pohjola Bank's inability to effectively manage these risks could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations or financial condition.

Risks Relating to the Outflow of Assets under Management

Should the current financial situation lead to a significant outflow of assets under management by Pohjola Asset Management or if the investments of Pohjola Asset Management develop in an unsatisfactory manner, current customers could choose to decrease, withdraw or transfer their assets to another asset manager. A poor success in investment operations could thus decrease the amount of fees and commissions of Pohjola Asset Management. Furthermore, if Pohjola Asset Management could not continue to provide satisfactory asset management services, it might not be able to attract new customers or increase the amount of the current customers' assets under management. Therefore, should Pohjola Asset Management not succeed in its investment operations, this could have a negative impact on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Relating to Brand, Reputation of Pohjola Bank and Market Rumours

Among other factors, Pohjola Bank relies on its well-known and good brand and reputation in Finland when competing for customers. During the current turbulent market environment, having a good reputation is of particular importance both in the banking, asset management and the insurance sector as financial institutions are particularly impacted by rumours and speculation regarding their solvency and their ability to access liquidity. Pohjola Bank can to a certain extent influence its own reputation. However, the brand and reputation of the Pohjola Bank can also be affected by other external factors outside the control of Pohjola Bank. Although Pohjola Bank has not experienced deposit or customer outflows as a result of any such rumours, there can be no certainty that any rumours or speculation, whether founded or not, would not have such an impact in the future.

Possible future decisions by Pohjola Bank concerning its operations and the selection of services and products it offers may have a negative effect on the Pohjola brand. Furthermore, if global economic conditions continue to be uncertain and unstable and continue to particularly impact the financial services sector, Pohjola Bank may suffer from rumours and speculation regarding, among other things, its solvency and liquidity situation. Negative developments in the Pohjola Bank's reputation and brand as well as negative views of consumers concerning Pohjola Bank's products and services or market rumours concerning Pohjola Bank may have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Relating to the Non-life Insurance Industry

OP-Pohjola Group's non-life business is centralised within Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment and OP-Pohjola Group's life and pension insurance business is centralised within OP Life Assurance Company Ltd. Pohjola Group is subject to the specific risks of the non-life insurance industry, which risks affect Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Non-life Insurance Industry is Subject to Comprehensive Regulation

The current business of Pohjola Group's non-life insurance operations are subject to comprehensive regulation. Examples of the regulated issues are:

- acquisition or disposition of an insurance company or of any company controlling an insurance company;
- approval or filing of policy forms;
- limitations on types and amounts of investments;
- limitations on the right to cancel or renew policies;
- the right to withdraw from markets or terminate involvement with agents;
- licensing of insurers and agents; and
- transactions between an insurance company and any of its affiliates.

In the spring of 2009, the EU adopted a new, major solvency regime applying to the insurance sector ("Solvency II"). The regulations are still being processed, and are scheduled to come into force at the beginning of 2016. These changes in the regulations will have also an effect on Pohjola Group through its non-life insurance companies. Changes in the insurance sector's Solvency II regulations aim to improve the quality of insurance companies' capital base, improve their risk management, increase the risk-based solvency requirements and harmonise insurance-sector requirements in Europe. According to current interpretations, Solvency II will tighten solvency capital requirements but also increase the required capital base. Pohjola considers that its Non-life business already fulfils the solvency requirement under the proposed Solvency II.

In addition, regulators perform periodic financial and market conduct examinations of insurance companies. The regulation is generally intended for the protection of policyholders rather than shareholders. There is no guarantee that existing insurance-related laws and regulations will not become more restrictive in the future or that new restrictive laws will not be enacted and, therefore, it is not possible to predict the potential effects of such laws and regulations.

Intense Competition Could Adversely Affect the Business and its Profitability

The non-life insurance industry is highly competitive and Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business will continue to face significant competition from domestic and foreign insurance companies. The competition between companies is measured based on many factors, including, for example credit ratings, financial strength, reputation, service to policyholders and agents, product development (including interest rates credited and premium rates charged) and commissions. Changes in the competitive situation could have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business and result of operations.

Investment Risks and Actuarial Risk in the Non-life Insurance Business

The board of directors of each of Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies confirms the annual risk management plan setting out the relevant company's targets for its risk-bearing capacity and limiting the assumption of risk. In non-life insurance business segment, investment operations are based on investment plans and investment authorisations, confirmed annually by the board of directors of each non-life insurance company at Pohjola Group, which specify the basic allocation and range of investments by asset class, the organisation of investment, risk limits as well as decision-making powers and authority.

Non-life insurance business increases the income volatility of the Pohjola Group due to the randomness of the damage claims of non-life insurance business. The market risks of the investments of the insurance companies reflect mainly to the fair value reserves in own funds.

Risks Pertaining to the Selection and Pricing of Non-life Insurance Risks

Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment's products offered to customers include, for example, private and corporate customers' property insurance, motor vehicle insurance, motor third-party liability insurance, mandatory workers compensation insurance, travel insurances and accident and health insurances to both private and corporate customers. Selecting and pricing any particular type of non-life insurance is largely based on the historical claims statistics for each type of non-life insurance product. Therefore, there cannot be full certainty of the non-life insurance products' correct pricing at the moment of sale as compared to their subsequent actual claims development.

Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment seeks to limit concentration risk of its non-life insurance policies by both insurance type specific and risk concentration specific limitations. Non-life insurance business segment also aims at limiting risks by focusing on including appropriate terms and conditions in its non-life insurance policy contracts. The most significant pricing risks are related to the adequacy of the risk premiums included in the pricing models of non-life insurance business segment's insurance products. It is also of great importance how effectively profitability and reported claims are monitored. Furthermore, pricing risks are connected to how well profitability and reported claims can be taken into account in the pricing of non-life insurance policies and the selection and pricing of underwriting risks. Nonetheless, there is no certainty that risks can be assessed correctly and that the insurance premiums would be sufficient to cover the payment of claims and operating expenses resulting from non-life insurance contracts. A failure in risk selection and pricing could cause substantial financial losses and have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

The Adequacy of Non-life Insurance Liabilities

The Pohjola Group attempts to define non-life insurance liabilities in a safeguarding manner so that they are likely to be sufficient to cover projected future payments arising from claims related to sold non-life insurance policies. Cash paid out in Pohjola Bank's underwriting operations primarily relate to the payment of claims and the cost from processing these claims. Projecting non-life insurance liabilities always involves several elements of uncertainty around the incidental nature of claims development, the delay in uncovering damage or loss, cost-induced inflation or legislative amendments and the general economic development. The uncertainty related to the adequacy of the non-life insurance liabilities is greater in relation to new types of non-life insurance products, for which extensive statistics on damages paid do not yet exist, and to non-life insurance products in connection to which either uncovering of damage is slow or terms of insurance are long.

Should the insurance liabilities prove to be inadequate so that the insurance liabilities would have to be increased, this would have an adverse effect on the profitability of the non-life insurance operations, which in turn could have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Non-diversifiable Insurance Risks

Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment's insurance portfolio comprises a very large number of non-life insurance policies covering damage or loss, due to which also a large number of claims is expected to be reported. According to the law of large numbers in probability theory, the numerical relative variation in the occurrence of certain events decreases when the number of said events increases. This theory is related to diversifiable insurance risks; provided that the damages or losses taking place are completely independent of each other, the numerical relative variation of the damages claims will in general decrease when the number of insurance risks in the insurance portfolio increases.

The insurance risks are, however, typically not fully independent of each other, meaning that the insurance portfolio always involves an element of non-diversifiable residual risk. The non-diversifiable risks usually involve changes taking place in the external operating environment and for example include changes in the economic environment or natural disasters, such as large-scale storms affecting the whole of Finland. Non-diversifiable risks can furthermore involve a yet unidentified, latent risk of damage, which pertains to a large number of insurance contracts. Non-diversifiable risks can be described as the biggest non-life insurance risks (underwriting risks) in monetary value for non-life insurance operations, yet having the lowest probability of occurrence. A materialisation of these risks would result in Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment incurring higher-than anticipated losses which would have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Non-life Insurance Industry is Sensitive to Economic Fluctuations

The non-life insurance industry, and particularly the non-life insurance market, is cyclical. Historically, operating results of non-life insurance companies have fluctuated significantly because of unstable and sometimes unpredictable developments, many of which are beyond the direct control of non-life insurance companies. These developments include, inter alia:

- price competition and price setting mechanisms;
- frequency of occurrence or severity of both natural and man-made catastrophic events;
- level of demand;
- general economic conditions; and
- changes in legislation, legal precedents and interpretations.

Possible effects of economic fluctuations may have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations or financial condition.

Catastrophic Events, Both Natural and Man-made, May Cause Major Losses

A catastrophic event or multiple catastrophic events may cause major losses and may have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies. Examples of possible natural catastrophic events include, inter alia, windstorms, hurricanes, floods, other severe conditions and fires. Catastrophic events are inherently unpredictable in terms of both their occurrence and severity.

Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies are also exposed to man-made catastrophic events which may have a material adverse effect on their business, results of operations and financial condition. It is possible that both the frequency and severity of man-made catastrophic events will increase in the future.

Claims from natural or man-made catastrophic events may cause substantial periodic volatility in Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies' financial results and adversely affect their business, results of operations or financial condition. Pohjola Bank's ability to expand its business could also be impacted. Increases in the value and geographic concentration of insured properties and the effects of inflation may increase the magnitude of claims from catastrophic events.

The extent of a non-life insurance company's losses from catastrophic occurrences is a function of the total insured amount of losses its clients incur, the number of its clients affected, and the frequency and severity of the events. In addition, depending on the nature of the loss, the speed with which claims are made and settled, and the terms of the policies affected, a non-life insurance company may be required to make large payments upon short notice. Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies may be forced to fund these obligations by liquidating investments rapidly and in unfavourable market conditions, or by raising funds at unfavourable costs, both of which could adversely affect the results of operations and financial condition of Pohjola Bank.

One may seek protection against catastrophic losses through reinsurance, but risks may be related to the coverage, availability and price of reinsurance. These risks may adversely affect the results of operations and financial condition of Pohjola Bank.

Although it is possible to seek protection against catastrophic losses through internal practices and principles, reinsurance and the monitoring of risk accumulations, the measures taken in Pohjola Group's non life insurance business segment may not necessarily prevent such occurrences from adversely affecting Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations or financial condition.

Adequacy of Reinsurance Coverage

Pohjola Group's non-life insurance business segment reinsures risks exceeding a certain limit, for which it cannot take or prefers not to take sole liability, in order to decrease risks or ensure profitability. The purpose of reinsurance is to reduce the chance variation of claims incurred and increase the efficiency of capital expenditure. Only companies with adequate credit ratings are approved as reinsurers. Moreover, maximum limits have been confirmed for the amounts of risk that can be ceded to any one reinsurer. The limit depends on the nature of the risk involved and on the company's solvency. Only companies with a sufficiently high insurance financial strength rating are accepted as reinsurers. The reinsurance of non-life insurance has been arranged on a centralised basis. Retention in risk specific reinsurance is a maximum of EUR 5 million and that in catastrophe reinsurance EUR 5 million. The capacity of catastrophe reinsurance covering loss accumulation stood at EUR 135 million in 2013. In addition, claims under the short-tail business have an annual aggregate protection with a capacity of EUR 10 million.

Nonetheless, there is no certainty that the need for reinsurance and its optimisation on the basis of statistical methods and models has been determined in an adequate manner. Nor is there any certainty that one or more reinsurers will be able to fulfil their undertakings in all circumstances. Inadequate reinsurance coverage may have adverse effects on the results and financial condition of the non life insurance operations, which could, consequently, have an adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Turbulence in the global economy and financial markets may have an adverse impact on the reinsurance industry. This could cause financial and liquidity problems for the reinsurance companies included in Pohjola Group's non-life insurance companies' reinsurance programme. In the case of a major claim a specific reinsurance company may not be able to fulfil its obligations, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on Pohjola Bank's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Terrorist Attacks or National Security Threats May Have an Adverse Effect on Pohjola Insurance Ltd

Threats of terrorist attacks, national security threats, military initiatives and political unrest in, inter alia, Iraq, Afghanistan and the Middle East, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on general economic, market and political conditions, increasing many of the risks relating to the business of non-life insurance companies. Pohjola Bank cannot predict the effects of terrorist attacks, threats to national security, military initiatives and political unrest on its business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risk Factors Involved with OP-Pohjola Group's Other Business Areas

The factors described below are also relevant to Pohjola Bank as part of OP-Pohjola Group.

Credit Risks Relating to Retail Banking

Estimating the potential write-downs in OP-Pohjola Group's retail loan portfolio is difficult and depends on many factors. Unemployment and the interest rate level are the most significant general economic factors which might adversely affect retail customers' ability to repay their loans. Furthermore, fluctuations in housing prices and general activity in the housing market could adversely affect both customers' debt servicing ability as well as the realisation value of collaterals. Therefore, this could have a negative impact on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Relating to the Outflow of Deposits

Deposits comprise a major share of OP-Pohjola Group's funding. Should the current financial situation lead to a significant outflow of deposits OP-Pohjola Group's funding structure would change substantially and the average cost of funding would increase. Furthermore, this would jeopardise the OP-Pohjola Group's liquidity and it would be unable to meet its current and future cash flow and collateral needs, both expected and unexpected, without affecting its daily operations or overall financial position. Therefore, this could have a negative impact on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Relating to Interest Rate Income

Income generation in retail banking is significantly affected by changes in the interest rate level. Interest rate risk arises when interest rate fixing periods or interest rate bases for assets and liabilities are mismatched. Net interest income comprises a substantial part of OP-Pohjola Group's total income. Changes in the interest rate level could adversely affect OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition. Therefore, this could have a negative impact on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Investment Risk Associated with Life Insurance Operations

Investment operations play an important role in the life insurance business. A life insurance company invests in order to ensure customer profit, to obtain assets covering insurance liabilities, and to gain a profit on insurance premiums invested. Achieving long term return targets for investment requires controlled risk-taking. Should the market prices of investment instruments change adversely this could decrease the market values of investment portfolio and deteriorate profitability of investment operations.

Underwriting Risk in Life Insurance Operations

The greatest underwriting risks associated with Life Insurance have to do with mortality, life expectancy (that is, longevity), work disability, customer behaviour and operating expenses. These factors are crucial in determining underwriting risk, because insurance premiums and the amount of insurance liabilities are based on assumptions based on these factors. Changes in mortality, life expectancy, work disability, customer behaviour and operating expenses could adversely affect the profitability of life insurance operations. Moreover, this could deteriorate the profitability of the OP-Pohjola Group.

Strategic risk

Strategic risks are managed by analysing the risks when drawing up the strategy and by continually monitoring and analysing changes in the operating environment and the realisation of the strategy. Strategic risk is reduced by regular planning, based on analyses and forecasts of customer needs, the development of different sectors and market areas, and the competition situation. The strategic policies are processed extensively within the Group before being confirmed. Although strategic risks are managed carefully it is still possible that strategic risk may have a materially adverse effect on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

If OP-Pohjola Group is unable to successfully execute its strategy, this will have a materially adverse effect on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition. Also, OP-Pohjola Group's strategy may not be competitive or may be insufficient to meet customer requirements in the future as competition increases and customer offerings develop in the markets internationally. If OP-Pohjola Group cannot adapt its strategy to meet these requirements, this could have a materially adverse effect on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risk Relating to Completion of the Tender Offer

The Central Cooperative announced on 6 February 2014 a public voluntary bid for all Pohjola Bank shares. As a result of the tender offer, the Central Cooperative held on 25 April 2014 98.41 per cent. of Pohjola Bank's shares and 99.14 per cent. of the votes. The Central Cooperative, with more than nine-tenths of all shares and votes in the Bank has the right, under Chapter 18, Section 1 of the Finnish Companies Act (Osakeyhtiölaki 21.7.2006/624, as amended), to redeem (right of squeeze-out) all of the series A shares held by Pohjola Bank's remaining shareholders at the fair price. The Central Cooperative has decided to exercise its right of squeeze-out and has instituted arbitration proceedings under the Finnish Companies Act in order to redeem the shares.

The intention of the Central Cooperative is for Pohjola Insurance Ltd and Pohjola Asset Management Ltd, which are owned by Pohjola Bank, to be transferred through various structural arrangements to the Central Cooperative as fully-owned direct subsidiaries, as well as for Pohjola Bank and Helsinki OP Bank Plc to merge. The arrangements are expected to generate approximately EUR 50 million per annum in synergy benefits for OP-Pohjola Group, of which approximately EUR 20 million is estimated to come from cost synergies and EUR 30 million from revenue synergies. The majority of the synergies are expected to be generated at the OP-Pohjola Group Central Consolidated level. The synergies will be fully implemented over approximately five years. However, there is no assurance that the arrangements mentioned above will succeed and cost and revenue synergies may not be generated as expected, which could have a materially adverse effect on OP-Pohjola Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risk Relating to the Instruments

Payments on certain Notes may be subject to U.S. withholding tax under FATCA

The U.S. "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act" (or "FATCA") imposes a new reporting regime and, potentially, a 30 per cent. withholding tax with respect to (i) certain payments from sources within the United States, (ii) "foreign passthru payments" made to certain non-U.S. financial institutions that do not comply with this new reporting regime, and (iii) payments to certain investors that do not provide identification information with respect to interests issued by a participating non-U.S. financial institution.

While the Instruments are in global form and held within the clearing systems, in all but the most remote circumstances, it is not expected that FATCA will affect the amount of any payment received by the clearing systems. However, FATCA may affect payments made to custodians or intermediaries in the subsequent payment chain leading to the ultimate investor if any such custodian or intermediary generally is unable to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. It also may affect payment to any ultimate investor that is a financial institution that is not entitled to receive payments free of withholding under FATCA, or an ultimate investor that fails to provide its broker (or other custodian or intermediary from which it receives payment) with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for the payments to be made free of FATCA withholding. Investors should choose the custodians or intermediaries with care (to ensure each is compliant with FATCA or other laws or agreements related to FATCA) and provide each custodian or intermediary with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for such custodian or intermediary to make a payment free of FATCA withholding. The Bank's obligations under the Instruments are discharged once it has paid the common depository or common safekeeper for the clearing systems (as bearer or registered holder of the Instruments) and the Bank has therefore no responsibility for any amount thereafter transmitted through hands of the clearing systems and custodians or intermediaries.

Implementation of Basel III / CRD IV

The rules applicable to the capital of financial institutions are being changed across the European Union in order to implement the Basel III measures issued by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. The European legislative package consists of a fourth capital requirements Directive and a new capital requirements Regulation, collectively known as "CRD IV". The CRD IV Regulation entered into force in Finland on 1 January 2014. The national implementation of the CRD IV Directive is currently ongoing. The CRD IV Directive will be implemented through a new Finnish Act on Credit Institutions. Pursuant to the Finnish government's proposal (39/2014, published on 17 April 2014), the Finnish Act on Credit Institutions (9.2.2007/121) will be replaced with the new Finnish Act on Credit Institutions. However, the new Finnish Act on Credit Institutions is not in final form and it needs to be considered and approved by the Finnish Parliament.

CRD IV introduces significant changes in the prudential regulatory regime applicable to banks including: increased minimum capital ratios; changes to the definition of capital and the calculation of risk weighted assets; and the introduction of new measures relating to leverage, liquidity and funding. CRD IV permits a transitional period for certain of the enhanced capital requirements and certain other measures, such as the CRD IV leverage ratio, which are not expected to be finally implemented until 2018. Minimum capital requirements came into force from 1 January 2014 without transitional measures. According to a draft of the new Finnish Act on Credit Institutions (the Finnish government's proposal 39/2014, published on 17 April 2014) capital conservation buffer would be applied from 1 January 2015, countercyclical capital buffer could be set at 1 January 2015 the earliest and O-SII buffer would be applied as soon as legislation is in force.

CRD IV requirements adopted in Finland may change, whether as a result of further changes to CRD IV agreed by EU legislators, binding regulatory technical standards to be developed by the European Banking Authority (the "EBA") or changes to the way in which the FFSA interprets and applies these requirements to Finnish banks (including as regards individual model approvals granted under CRD II and III). If the Finnish Act on Credit Institutions were to be amended in a manner other than as set out in the draft of the new Act on Credit Institutions, it could be materially more difficult for the OP-Pohjola Group to maintain compliance with prudential requirements. This may result in a need for further management actions to meet the changed requirements, such as: increasing capital, reducing leverage and risk weighted assets, modifying legal entity structure (including with regard to issuance and deployment of capital and funding for the OP-Pohjola Group) and changing the OP-Pohjola Group's business mix or exiting other businesses and/or undertaking other actions to strengthen Pohjola's capital position.

European resolution regime and loss absorption at the point of non-viability

On 6 May 2014, the EU Council adopted the European Union directive establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (the "Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive" or "BRRD"). The BRRD is yet to be published in the Official Journal of the European Union; it is expected to enter into force before 1 January 2015 (the expected implementation dates are set out below). The stated aim of the BRRD is to provide supervisory authorities, including the relevant resolution authority, with common tools and powers to address banking crises pre-emptively in order to safeguard financial stability and minimise taxpayers' exposure to losses.

The powers proposed to be granted to supervisory authorities under the BRRD include (but are not limited to) the introduction of a statutory "write-down and conversion power" and a "bail-in" power, which will give the relevant resolution authority the power to cancel all or a portion of the principal amount of, or interest on, certain unsecured liabilities (which could include the Instruments) of a failing financial institution and/or to convert certain debt claims (which could include the Instruments) into another security, including equity instruments of the surviving OP-Pohjola Group entity, if any. The majority of measures set out in the BRRD (including the write-down and conversion powers relating to Tier 1 capital instruments and Tier 2 capital instruments) will need to be implemented with effect from 1 January 2015, with the bail-in power for other eligible liabilities (which could include any Securities that are not Tier 1 or Tier 2 capital instruments) to apply from 1 January 2016 at the latest. However, as noted above, the BRRD has not been published in the Official Journal of the European Union.

As well as a "write-down and conversion power" and a "bail-in" power, the powers currently proposed to be granted to the relevant resolution authority under the BRRD include the power to (i) direct the sale of the relevant financial institution or the whole or part of its business on commercial terms without requiring the consent of the shareholders or complying with the procedural requirements that would otherwise apply, (ii) transfer all or part of the business of the relevant financial institution to a "bridge bank" (a publicly controlled entity) and (iii) transfer the impaired or problem assets of the relevant financial institution to an asset management vehicle to allow them to be managed over time. In addition, among the broader powers proposed to be granted to the relevant resolution authority under the BRRD, the BRRD will provide powers to the relevant resolution authority to amend the maturity date and/or any interest payment date of debt instruments or other eligible liabilities of the relevant financial institution and/or impose a temporary suspension of payments.

The BRRD contains safeguards for shareholders and creditors in respect of the application of the "write down and conversion" and "bail-in" powers which aim to ensure that they do not incur greater losses than they would have incurred had the relevant financial institution been wound up under normal insolvency proceedings.

Until finally implemented, it is not possible to assess the full impact of the BRRD on the OP-Pohjola Group and on holders of the Instruments, and there can be no assurance that, once it is implemented, the manner in which it is implemented or the taking of any actions by the relevant resolution authority currently contemplated in the BRRD would not adversely affect the rights of holders of the Instruments, the price or value of an investment in the Instruments and/or the Bank's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Instruments.

Article 518 of the CRD IV Regulation states that by 31 December 2015, the European Commission should review and report whether the CRD IV Regulation should be amended so as to include write-down and conversion powers to ensure that relevant capital instruments fully absorb losses at the point of non-viability of the issuing institution and before any other resolution action is taken. There is a risk that such an amendment would result in the Instruments being used to absorb losses on the occurrence of a non-viability event.

The exercise of any such power or any suggestion of such exercise could, therefore, materially adversely affect the value of any Instruments subject to the BRRD and could lead to the holders of the Instruments losing some or all of their investment in the Instruments.

There May not be an Active Trading Market for the Instruments

The Instruments are new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there may not be an active trading market. If the Instruments are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Bank. Although applications may be made for the Instruments to be admitted to the Official List of the FCA and traded on the regulated market of the London Stock Exchange, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for the Instruments.

The Instruments May be Redeemed Prior to Maturity

In the event that Pohjola Bank would be obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Instruments due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Republic of Finland or any political subdivision thereof or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, Pohjola Bank may redeem all outstanding Instruments in accordance with the Conditions.

In addition, if in the case of any particular Tranche of Instruments the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Instruments are redeemable at Pohjola Bank's option in certain other circumstances the Bank may choose to redeem the Instruments at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the relevant Instruments.

The Instruments may be redeemed prior to maturity following a Capital Event

If a Capital Event (as defined in Condition 6) occurs, Pohjola Bank may, at its option, but subject to the prior approval of the FFSA (if then required), elect to redeem in whole (but not in part) the Tier 2 Instruments at either their principal amount or at 101 per cent. of their principal amount (as specified in the relevant Final Terms), together with accrued interest (if any) thereon. If the Bank redeems the Instruments in the circumstances mentioned above, there is a risk that the Instruments may be redeemed at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the relevant Instruments.

In certain instances the Bank could substitute or vary the terms of the Instruments

In certain circumstances, if a Capital Event (as defined in Condition 6.08) has occurred and is continuing, the Bank may, without the consent of the Holders, but subject to the approval of the FFSA (if then required), substitute the Tier 2 Instruments or vary the terms of the Tier 2 Instruments in order to ensure such substituted or varied Tier 2 Instruments continue to qualify as Tier 2 capital in accordance with the requirements of the Applicable Banking Regulations (as defined in Condition 3B.01). The terms and conditions of such substituted or varied Tier 2 Instruments may have terms and conditions that contain one or more provisions that are substantially different from the terms and conditions of the original Tier 2 Instruments, provided that the Tier 2 Instruments remain Compliant Instruments (as defined in Condition 9). While the Bank cannot make changes to the terms of the Tier 2 Instruments that, in its reasonable opinion, are materially less favourable to a Holder of such Instruments, no assurance can be given as to whether any of these changes will negatively affect any particular Holder. In addition, the tax and stamp duty consequences of holding such varied Instruments could be different for some categories of Holders from the tax and stamp duty consequences for them of holding the Instruments prior to such substitution or variation.

Investors Will Have to Rely on the Procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg

The Instruments will be represented by the Global Instruments except in certain limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Instrument. The Global Instruments will be deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in certain limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Instrument, investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Instruments. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Instruments. While the Instruments are represented by the Global Instruments, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

The Bank will discharge its payment obligations under the Instruments by making payments to the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Instrument must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the Instruments. Pohjola Bank has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Instruments.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Instruments will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the Instruments. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Instruments will not have a direct right under the Global Instruments to take enforcement action against Pohjola in the event of a default under the Instruments but will have to rely upon their rights under the Deed of Covenant.

Modification and Waiver

The conditions of the Instruments contain provisions for calling meetings of Holders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Holders including such Holders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and the Holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

Change of Law

The conditions of the Instruments are based on the laws of England (and, in the case of the subordination provisions to which Condition 3B applies, the laws of Finland) in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Instruments. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to the laws of England, or, in the case of the subordination provisions to which Condition 3B applies, the laws of Finland or administrative practice after the date of this Base Prospectus.

Furthermore, Pohjola Bank operates in a heavily regulated environment and has to comply with extensive regulations in the Republic of Finland and elsewhere. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to laws or administrative practices of Finland or any other jurisdiction in which Pohjola Bank operates after the date of this Base Prospectus.

Denominations

In relation to any issue of Instruments which have a denomination consisting of the minimum Specified Denomination plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Instruments may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of the minimum Specified Denomination (or its equivalent). In such a case a Holder of Instruments who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination may not receive a Definitive Instrument in respect of such holding (should Definitive Instruments be printed) and may need to purchase a principal amount of Instruments such that its holding amounts to the minimum Specified Denomination.

If Definitive Instruments are issued, Holders of Instruments should be aware that Definitive Instruments which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Tier 2 Instruments are Subordinated to Most of the Bank's Liabilities

In the case of any Tier 2 Instruments, if the Bank is declared bankrupt and a winding up is initiated, the Bank will be required to pay the holders of senior debt and meet its obligations to all its depositors and other creditors (including unsecured creditors but excluding any obligations in respect of subordinated debt) in full before it can make any payments on the relevant Tier 2 Instruments. If this occurs, Pohjola Bank may not have enough assets remaining after these payments to pay amounts due under the relevant Tier 2 Instruments.

As a result of the merger of Pohjola Bank and Helsinki OP Bank Plc the debtor of Instruments may change

The Central Cooperative with more than nine tenths (9/10) of all shares and votes in Pohjola Bank has the right, under Chapter 18, Section 1 of the Finnish Companies Act (Osakeyhtiölaki 21.7.2006/624, as amended), to redeem (right of squeeze-out) all of the series A shares held by Pohjola Bank's remaining shareholders at the fair price. The Central Cooperative has decided to exercise its right of squeeze-out and has instituted arbitration proceedings under the Finnish Companies Act in order to redeem the shares. The intention of the Central Cooperative is for Pohjola Insurance Ltd and Pohjola Asset Management Ltd, which are owned by Pohjola Bank, to be transferred through various structural arrangements to the Central Cooperative as fully-owned direct subsidiaries, as well as for Pohjola Bank and Helsinki OP Bank Plc to merge. Decisions about the merger will not be made until the squeeze-out is complete. Therefore, it is currently unclear if Pohjola Bank will be the surviving company in the merger. Thus, the debtor of Instruments may change as a result of the merger. This may have a negative impact on the credit rating of the debtor and position of the Holders of Instruments.

Risks Related to the Market Generally

Set out below is a brief description of the principal market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk and interest rate risk:

The Secondary Market Generally

Instruments may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Instruments easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market.

Exchange Rate Risks and Exchange Controls

Pohjola Bank will pay principal and interest on the Instruments in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may change significantly (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Instruments, (ii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Instruments and (iii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Instruments.

Government and monetary authorities may impose exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Fixed Rate Instruments are Subject to Interest Rate Risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Instruments involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Instruments.

Credit Ratings May Not Reflect All Risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Instruments. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above and other factors which may affect the value of the Instruments. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

FINAL TERMS, DRAWDOWN PROSPECTUSES AND PRICING SUPPLEMENTS

In this section the expression "necessary information" means, in relation to any Tranche of Instruments, the information necessary to enable investors to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Bank and of the rights attaching to the Instruments. In relation to the different types of Instruments which may be issued under the Programme the Bank has included in this Base Prospectus all of the necessary information except for information relating to the Instruments which is not known at the date of this Base Prospectus and which can only be determined at the time of an individual issue of a Tranche of Instruments.

Any information relating to the Instruments which is not included in this Base Prospectus and which is required in order to complete the necessary information in relation to a Tranche of Instruments will be contained either in the relevant Final Terms, in a Drawdown Prospectus or in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Such information will be contained in the relevant Final Terms unless any of such information constitutes a significant new factor relating to the information contained in this Base Prospectus in which case such information, together with all of the other necessary information in relation to the relevant series of Instruments, may be contained in a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement.

For a Tranche of Instruments which is the subject of Final Terms, those Final Terms will, for the purposes of that Tranche only, complete this Base Prospectus and must be read in conjunction with this Base Prospectus. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Instruments which is the subject of Final Terms are the Conditions as completed to the extent described in the relevant Final Terms.

The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Instruments which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement (as applicable) will be the Conditions as supplemented, amended and/or replaced to the extent described in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement (as applicable). In the case of a Tranche of Instruments which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement (as applicable), each reference in this Base Prospectus to information being specified or identified in the relevant Final Terms shall be read and construed as a reference to such information being specified or identified in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement (as applicable) unless the context requires otherwise.

Following the publication of this Base Prospectus a supplement may be prepared by the Bank and approved by the FCA in accordance with Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive. Statements contained in any such supplement (or contained in any document incorporated by reference therein) shall, to the extent applicable (whether expressly, by implication or otherwise), be deemed to modify or supersede statements contained in this Base Prospectus. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not, except as so modified or superseded, constitute a part of this Base Prospectus.

The Bank will, in the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information included in this Base Prospectus which is capable of affecting the assessment of any Instruments, prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus or publish a new Base Prospectus for use in connection with any subsequent issue of Instruments.

FORMS OF THE INSTRUMENTS

Bearer Instruments

Each Tranche of bearer Instruments will initially be in the form of either a temporary global Instrument (the "Temporary Global Instrument"), without interest coupons, or a permanent global Instrument (the "Permanent Global Instrument"), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Each Temporary Global Instrument or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Instrument (each a "Global Instrument") which is not intended to be issued in new global instrument ("NGI") form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the Issue Date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments with a depository or a common depository for Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and/or Clearstream Banking, societe anonyme, Luxembourg ("Clearstream, Luxembourg") and/or any other relevant clearing system and each Global Instrument which is intended to be issued in NGI form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the Issue Date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Permanent Global Instrument

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Instruments as being "Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for a Permanent Global Instrument", then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Instrument which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Instrument, without interest coupons, not earlier than 40 days after the Issue Date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Instrument unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Instrument is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Instruments cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument, the Bank shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent; and
- (ii) receipt by the Fiscal Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership, within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

The principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument exceed the initial principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument.

The Permanent Global Instrument will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Instruments in definitive form ("Definitive Instruments") if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 7 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Permanent Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, the Bank shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument against the surrender of the Permanent Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Instruments as being "Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments" then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Instrument which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for Definitive Instruments not earlier than 40 days after the Issue Date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 7 (Events of Default) occurs. Interest payments in respect of the Instruments cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever the Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, the Bank shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument against the surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

For the avoidance of doubt, if Instruments are to be issued with a minimum Specified Denomination and in integral multiples of another smaller amount in excess thereof as specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Instruments cannot be represented on issue by a Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments

Permanent Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Instruments as being "Permanent Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments", then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Permanent Global Instrument which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Instruments if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 7 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Permanent Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, the Bank shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument against the surrender of the Permanent Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

For the avoidance of doubt, Instruments will only be issued with a minimum Specified Denomination and in integral multiples of another smaller amount in excess thereof if the relevant Final Terms specifies "in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Instrument".

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Instruments

The terms and conditions applicable to any Definitive Instrument will be endorsed on that Instrument and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Instrument in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

Legend concerning United States persons

In the case of any Tranche of Instruments having a maturity of more than 365 days, the Instruments in global form, the Instruments in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto will bear a legend to the following effect:

"Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Registered Instruments

Each Tranche of Registered Instruments will be in the form of either individual Instruments in registered form ("Individual Registered Instruments") or a global Instrument in registered form (a "Global Registered Instrument"), in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Each Global Registered Instrument which is not intended to be held under the new safekeeping structure ("New Safekeeping Structure" or "NSS"), will, on or around the issue date, be registered in the name of a common depository (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and the relevant Global Registered Instrument will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common depository and will be exchangeable in accordance with its terms, and each Global Registered Instrument which is intended to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will, on or around the issue date, be registered in the name of a common safekeeper (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and be deposited with the common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and will be exchangeable for Individual Certificates in accordance with its terms.

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Instruments as being "Individual Registered Instruments", then the Instruments will at all times be in the form of Individual Registered Instruments issued to each Holder in respect of their respective holdings.

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Instruments as being "Global Registered Instrument exchangeable for Individual Registered Instruments", then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Global Registered Instrument which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Individual Registered Instruments:

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (b) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (c) if the relevant Final Terms specifies "in the limited circumstances described in the Global Registered Instrument", then if either of the following events occurs:
 - (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or
 - (ii) any of the circumstances described in Condition 7 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Global Registered Instrument is to be exchanged for Individual Registered Instruments, the Bank shall procure that Individual Registered Instruments will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Registered Instrument within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Registered Instrument to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Registered Instruments (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual Registered Instruments are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global Registered Instrument at the specified office of the Registrar.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Instruments

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Registered Instrument will be endorsed on that Individual Registered Instrument and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Global Registered Instrument will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE INSTRUMENTS

The following is the text of the terms and conditions which, as completed by the relevant Final Terms (or, in the case of a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement, as amended, supplemented and/or replaced by such Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement), will be endorsed on each Instrument in definitive form issued under the Programme. The terms and conditions applicable to any Instrument in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

The Instruments are issued in accordance with an amended and restated fiscal agency agreement (the "Fiscal Agency Agreement", which expression shall include any amendments or supplements thereto) dated 3 June 2014 and made between Pohjola Bank plc (the "Bank"), Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch in its capacity as fiscal agent (the "Fiscal Agent", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch in its capacity as such), Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, New York office, in its capacity as principal registrar (the "Principal Registrar", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, New York office, in its capacity as such), Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. as first alternative registrar (the "First Alternative Registrar", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. in its capacity as such) and certain other financial institutions named therein in their capacities as paying agents (the "Paying Agents", which expression shall include the Fiscal Agent and any substitute or additional paying agents appointed in accordance with the Fiscal Agency Agreement). Copies of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the deed of covenant dated 3 June 2014 (the "Deed of Covenant") are available for inspection at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents, the Principal Registrar and the First Alternative Registrar. All persons from time to time entitled to the benefit of obligations under any Instruments shall be deemed to have notice of and to be bound by all of the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement insofar as they relate to the relevant Instruments.

The Instruments are issued in a series (each a "Series"). Each Series may comprise one or more tranches (each a "Tranche") of Instruments. Each Tranche (except in the case of Non-PD Instruments (as defined below)) will be the subject of final terms (each a "Final Terms") or a drawdown prospectus (the "Drawdown Prospectus"). In the case of a Tranche of Instruments which will not be admitted to listing, trading on a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2004/39/EC) in the European Economic Area and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system or will be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by such other or further competent authorities, stock exchanges and/or quotation systems as may be agreed between the Bank and the relevant Dealer ("Non-PD Instruments") and, accordingly, for which no base prospectus is required to be produced in accordance with Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (which includes the amendments made by Directive 2010/73/EU to the extent that such amendments have been implemented in a relevant Member State) (the "Prospectus Directive"), a pricing supplement (a "Pricing Supplement") will be issued describing the final terms of such Tranche of Non-PD Instruments.

In the case of a Tranche of Instruments subject to a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement, each reference in these "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" to a Final Terms shall be read and construed as a reference to a Drawdown Prospectus or a Pricing Supplement (as applicable), unless the context requires otherwise.

A copy of the Final Terms will be available for inspection at the specified office of each of the Fiscal Agent or, as the case may be, the Principal Registrar or the First Alternative Registrar and a copy of which will, in the case of a Tranche in respect of which application has been made for admission to the Official List of the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") and for admission to trading on the regulated market of the London Stock Exchange plc (the "London Stock Exchange"), be lodged with the FCA and the London Stock Exchange.

Transfer of Registered Instruments

- 2.04 A Registered Instrument may, upon the terms and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Fiscal Agency Agreement, be transferred in whole or in part only (provided that such part is, or is an integral multiple of, the minimum Specified Denomination specified in the relevant Final Terms) upon the surrender of the Registered Instrument to be transferred, together with the form of transfer endorsed on it duly completed and executed, at the specified office of the Registrar. A new Registered Instrument will be issued to the transferee and, in the case of a transfer of part only of a Registered Instrument, a new Registered Instrument in respect of the balance not transferred will be issued to the transferor.
- 2.05 Each new Registered Instrument to be issued upon the transfer of Registered Instruments will, upon the effective receipt of such form of transfer by the Registrar at its specified office, be available for delivery at the specified office of the Registrar. - 2.07 Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Instrument sold by a Dealer to a qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended from time to time (the "Securities Act") will be registered in the register which is kept by the Principal Registrar or the First Alternative Registrar, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Acceptance of any such Registered Instrument will be deemed to have been made on the basis of certain representations and warranties of such qualified institutional buyer or institutional accredited investor referred to below under "Subscription and Sale". Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Registered Instruments of any Series bearing the private placement legend (the "Private Placement Legend") set forth in the form of Registered Instrument scheduled to the Fiscal Agency Agreement, the Registrar shall deliver only Registered Instruments of such Series that also bear such legend unless either (i) such transfer, exchange or replacement occurs two or more years after the later of (1) the original Issue Date of Instruments of such Series or (2) the last date on which the Bank or any affiliates (as defined below) of the Bank as notified to the Registrar by the Bank as provided in the following sentence, was the beneficial owner of such Instrument (or any predecessor of such Instrument) or (ii) there is delivered to the Registrar an opinion reasonably satisfactory to the Bank of United States counsel experienced in giving opinions with respect to questions arising under the securities laws of the United States to the effect that neither such legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required in order to maintain compliance with the provisions of such laws. The Bank covenants and agrees that it will not acquire any beneficial interest, and will cause its "affiliates" (as defined in paragraph (a)(1) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) not to acquire any beneficial interest, in any Registered Instrument bearing the Private Placement Legend unless it notifies the Registrar of such acquisition. The Registrar and all Holders of Instruments shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any such notification (or lack thereof).

- 3B.01 This Condition 3B is applicable in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being "Tier 2 Instruments". For regulatory capital purposes, Tier 2 Instruments shall constitute Tier 2 capital as defined in the Applicable Banking Regulations ("Tier 2 Capital").

- 3B.02 The Tier 2 Instruments constitute direct and unsecured obligations of the Bank ranking pari passu without any preference among themselves. In the event of the winding up, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Bank, the claims of the Holders of Tier 2 Instruments against the Bank in respect of such Instruments (including any damages or other payments awarded for breach of any obligations (if payable)) shall (i) be subordinated to the claims of all Senior Creditors; (ii) rank at least pari passu with the claims of holders of all other subordinated obligations of the Bank and any other securities of the Bank which in each case by law rank, or by their terms are expressed to rank, pari passu with the Tier 2 Instruments; and (iii) rank senior to the Bank's ordinary shares, preference shares and any other junior subordinated obligations or other securities of the Bank which by law rank, or by their terms are expressed to rank, junior to the Tier 2 Instruments.

4. [Intentionally left blank]

5. Interest

Instruments may be interest-bearing or non-interest-bearing or a combination of the two, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Final Terms in relation to each Series of interest-bearing Instruments shall specify which of Conditions 5A, 5B, 5C or 5D shall be applicable provided that Condition 5E will be applicable as specified therein, save to the extent inconsistent with the relevant Final Terms.

5A. Interest - Fixed Rate

Instruments in relation to which this Condition 5A is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable shall bear interest from their date of issue (the "Issue Date") (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) or from such other date as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms at the rate or rates per annum specified in the relevant Final Terms. Such interest will be payable in arrear on such dates as are specified in the relevant Final Terms and on the date of final maturity thereof. Such interest will be calculated on such basis as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

If interest is required to be calculated for a period other than a full year, such interest shall be calculated:

- (i) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is so specified in the applicable Final Terms, means:
 - (a) where the calculation of an amount for any period of time (the "Calculation Amount") is equal to or shorter than the Regular Period during which it falls, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year; and
 - (b) where the Calculation Period is longer than one Regular Period, the sum of:
 - (A) the actual number of days in such Calculation Period falling in the Regular Period in which it begins divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year; and
 - (B) the actual number of days in such Calculation Period falling in the next Regular Period divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year; or
- (ii) if "30/360" is so specified, the number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows

where:

"Y₁" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Calculation Period falls;

"Y₂" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period falls;

"M₁" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Calculation Period falls;

"M₂" is the calendar month, expressed as number, in which the day immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period falls;

"D₁" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Calculation Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

"D₂" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period, unless such number would be 31 and D₁ is greater than 29, in which case D₂ will be 30".

For the purposes of the foregoing:

- (iii) "Regular Period" means:
 - (a) in the case of Instruments where interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including the Interest Commencement Date to but excluding the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period from and including one Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next Interest Payment Date;

- (b) in the case of Instruments where, apart from the first Interest Period, interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including a Regular Date falling in any year to but excluding the next Regular Date, where "Regular Date" means the day and month (but not the year) on which any Interest Payment Date falls; and
- (c) in the case of Instruments where, apart from one Interest Period other than the first Interest Period, interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including a Regular Date falling in any year to but excluding the next Regular Date, where "Regular Date" means the day and month (but not the year) on which any Interest Payment Date falls other than the Interest Payment Date falling at the end of the irregular Interest Period.

5B. Interest - Floating Rate

5B.01 This Condition 5B is applicable to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being Floating Rate Instruments. Floating Rate Instruments shall bear interest at the rate per annum determined in accordance with this Condition 5B (the "Rate of Interest").

5B.02 Floating Rate Instruments shall bear interest from their date of issue (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) or from such other date as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms (the "Interest Commencement Date"). Such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (i) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (ii) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the relevant Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an "Interest Payment Date") which falls the number of months or period specified as the Specified Period in the relevant Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date; or
- (iii) on the date of final maturity of the relevant Instruments (or otherwise as provided in the relevant Final Terms).

The period beginning on (and including) the Interest Commencement Date (or such other date specified in the Final Terms) and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date (or such other Interest Payment Date specified in the Final Terms) and each period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next Interest Payment Date is herein called an "Interest Period".

5B.03 Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a date which is not a Business Day (as defined in Condition 10), then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (i) the "Floating Rate Convention", such Interest Payment Date shall be the date which numerically corresponds to the preceding such date in the calendar month which is the number of months specified in the relevant Final Terms as the Specified Period after the calendar month in which the preceding such date occurred Provided that:
 - (A) if there is no such numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which any such date should occur, then such date will be the last day which is a Business Day in that calendar month;
 - (B) if any such date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then such date will be the first following day which is a Business Day unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case it will be the first preceding day which is a Business Day; and
 - (C) if the preceding such date occurred on the last day in a calendar month which was a Business Day, then all subsequent such dates will be the last day which is a Business Day in the calendar month which is the specified number of months after the calendar month in which the preceding such date occurred; or

- (ii) the "Following Business Day Convention", such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next date which is a Business Day; or
- (iii) the "Modified Following Business Day Convention", such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding day which is a Business Day; or
- (iv) the "Preceding Business Day Convention", such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding day which is a Business Day.

5B.04 The Final Terms shall specify which page (the "Relevant Screen Page") on Reuters or any other information vending service shall be applicable.

5B.05 Where "Screen Rate Determination" is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to such Instruments for each Interest Period shall be determined by the Fiscal Agent on the following basis:

- (i) the Fiscal Agent will determine the rate for deposits (or, as the case may require, the arithmetic mean of the rates for deposits) in the relevant currency for a period of the duration of the relevant Interest Period on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
- (ii) if no such rate for deposits so appears (or, as the case may require, if fewer than two such rates for deposits so appear), the Fiscal Agent will request the principal Relevant Financial Centre office of four major banks selected by the Fiscal Agent in the market most closely connected with the Reference Rate (the "Reference Banks") to provide a quotation of the Reference Rate at approximately 11.00 a.m. (local time in the Principal Financial Centre of the relevant currency) on the Interest Determination Date to prime banks in the Relevant Financial Centre interbank market for a period of the duration of the relevant Interest Period and in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in the relevant market at the relevant time, and will determine the arithmetic mean of such quotations;
- (iii) if fewer than two rates are so quoted, the Fiscal Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the rates (being the nearest to the Reference Rate, as determined by the Fiscal Agent) quoted by major banks in the Principal Financial Centre of the relevant currency selected by the Fiscal Agent, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (local time in the Principal Financial Centre of the relevant currency) on the first day of the relevant Interest Period for loans in the relevant currency to leading European banks for a period of the duration of the relevant Interest Period and in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in the relevant market at the relevant time;

and the Rate of Interest applicable to such Instruments during each Interest Period will be the sum of the relevant margin (the "Relevant Margin") specified in the relevant Final Terms and the rate (or, as the case may be, the arithmetic mean) so determined provided that, if the Fiscal Agent is unable to determine a rate (or, as the case may be, an arithmetic mean) in accordance with the above provisions in relation to any Interest Period, the Rate of Interest applicable to such Instruments during such Interest Period will be the sum of the Relevant Margin and the rate (or, as the case may be, the arithmetic mean) last determined in relation to such Instruments in respect of a preceding Interest Period or will be determined in such other manner as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; and

For the purposes of the foregoing:

- (i) "Principal Financial Centre" means, in relation to any currency, the principal financial centre for that currency provided, however that:
 - (A) in relation to Euro, it means the principal financial centre of such Member State of the European Union as is selected by the Fiscal Agent; and

- (B) in relation to New Zealand dollars, it means either Wellington or Auckland as is selected by the Fiscal Agent; and
- (ii) "Principal Financial Centre Banking Day" means a day on which commercial banks are open for business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the Principal Financial Centre of the specified currency.

5B.06 Where linear interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Fiscal Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate, one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period. In this Condition 5B.06 (v), "Designated Maturity" has the meaning given to it in the Final Terms.

5B.07 The Fiscal Agent will, as soon as practicable after determining the Rate of Interest in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the amount of interest (the "Interest Amount") payable in respect of each instrument for the relevant Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount (as defined in the relevant Final Terms), multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction specified in the relevant Final Terms and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the currency in which such Instruments are denominated or, as the case may be, in which such interest is payable (one half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of such Instrument divided by the Calculation Amount.

For the purposes of the foregoing:

- (i) "Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the Calculation Period, such day count fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms and:
- (a) if "Actual/365" or "Actual/Actual - ISDA" is specified hereon, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Calculation Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (A) the actual number of days in that portion of the Calculation Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (B) the actual number of days in that portion of the Calculation Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (b) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified hereon, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 365;
- (c) if "Actual/360" is specified hereon, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360;
- (d) if "30/360", "360/360" or "Bond Basis" is specified hereon, the number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360 (the number of days to be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months (unless (a) the last day of the Calculation Period is the 31st of a month but the first day of the Calculation Period is a day other than the 30th or 31st day of a month, in which case the month that includes that last day shall not be considered to be shortened to a 30-day month, or (b) the last day of the Calculation Period is the last day of the month of February, in which case the month of February shall not be considered to be lengthened to a 30-day month)); and
- (e) if "30E/360" or "Eurobond Basis" is so specified, the number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y₁" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Calculation Period falls;

"Y₂" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period falls;

"M₁" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Calculation Period falls;

"M₂" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period falls;

"D₁" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Calculation Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

"D₂" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₂ will be 30.

(f) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is so specified in the applicable Final Terms, means:

(a) where the calculation of an amount for any period of time (the "Calculation Amount") is equal to or shorter than the Regular Period during which it falls, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year; and

(b) where the Calculation Period is longer than one Regular Period, the sum of:

(A) the actual number of days in such Calculation Period falling in the Regular Period in which it begins divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year; and

(B) the actual number of days in such Calculation Period falling in the next Regular Period divided by the product of (1) the actual number of days in such Regular Period and (2) the number of Regular Periods in any year.

(ii) "Regular Period" means:

(a) in the case of Instruments where interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including the Interest Commencement Date to but excluding the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period from and including one Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next Interest Payment Date;

(b) in the case of Instruments where, apart from the first Interest Period, interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including a Regular Date falling in any year to but excluding the next Regular Date, where "Regular Date" means the day and month (but not the year) on which any Interest Payment Date falls; and

(c) in the case of Instruments where, apart from one Interest Period other than the first Interest Period, interest is scheduled to be paid only by means of regular payments, each period from and including a Regular Date falling in any year to but excluding the next Regular Date, where "Regular Date" means the day and month (but not the year) on which any Interest Payment Date falls other than the Interest Payment Date falling at the end of the irregular Interest Period.

5C Interest - Swap-Related (ISDA)

5C.01 Instruments in relation to which this Condition 5C is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable shall bear interest at the rate or rates per annum determined in accordance with this Condition 5C.

5C.02 Each such Instrument shall bear interest from its date of issue (as specified in the relevant Final Terms). Such interest will be payable on such dates and in such amounts as would have been payable (regardless of any event of default or termination event thereunder) by the Bank had it entered into a swap transaction (to which an Interest Rate and Currency Exchange Agreement or a Master Agreement and the 2006 ISDA Definitions (as amended and updated from time to time), as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc., applied) with the Holder of such Instruments under which:

- the Bank was the Fixed Rate Payer or, as the case may be, the Floating Rate Payer;
- the Fiscal Agent (or such other person as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) was the Calculation Agent;
- such date of issue was the Effective Date;
- the principal amount of such Instrument was the Calculation Amount; and
- all other terms were as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5C.03 Where linear interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Fiscal Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Floating Rate Option, one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period. In this Condition 5C.03, "Designated Maturity" has the meaning given to it in the Final Terms.

5D. Interest - Zero Coupon Instrument Provisions

5D.01 Application

This Condition 5D shall be applicable to the Instruments only if the Zero Coupon Instrument Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

5D.02 Late payment on Zero Coupon Instruments

If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Instrument is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:

- (i) the Reference Price; and
- (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Instrument up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Holders of the Instruments and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Fiscal Agent has notified the Holders of the Instruments that it has received all sums due in respect of the Instruments up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

5E. Interest – Supplemental Provision

5E.01 Notification of Rates of Interest, Interest Amounts and Interest Payment Dates

The Fiscal Agent will cause each Rate of Interest, floating rate, Interest Payment Date, final day of a calculation period, Interest Amount or floating amount, as the case may be, determined by it to be notified to the Bank, the other Paying Agents and, in the case of Registered Instruments, the Registrar (from whose respective specified offices such information will be available) as soon as practicable after such determination but in any event not later than the fourth London Banking Day thereafter and, in the case of Instruments admitted to the Official List of the FCA and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange, cause each such Rate of Interest, floating rate, Interest Amount or floating amount, as the case may be, to be notified to the FCA and the London Stock Exchange. The Fiscal Agent will be entitled to amend any Interest Amount, floating amount, Interest Payment Date or last day of a calculation period (or to make appropriate alternative arrangements by way of adjustment) in the event of the extension or abbreviation of the relevant Interest Period or calculation period.

5E.02 The determination by the Fiscal Agent or such other agent as is specified in the relevant Final Terms of all rates of interest and amounts of interest for the purposes of this Condition 5 shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on all parties.

6. Redemption and Purchase

Redemption at Maturity

6.01 Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled or unless such Instrument is stated in the relevant Final Terms as having no fixed maturity date, Instruments shall be redeemed at their principal amount (or at such other redemption amount as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) on the date or dates specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Early Redemption for Taxation Reasons

6.02 Subject to Condition 6.01, if, in relation to any Series of Instruments, (i) the Bank has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as referred to in Condition 8 as a result of any change in or amendment to the laws or regulations of the Republic of Finland or of any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of any such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the date of issue of such Instruments or any earlier date specified in the relevant Final Terms, on the occasion of the next payment due in respect of such Instruments and (ii) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Bank taking reasonable measures available to it, then the Bank may, on the expiry of the appropriate notice, (being in the case of Instruments which bear interest at a floating rate, a day upon which interest is payable) redeem all (but not some only) of the outstanding Instruments comprising the relevant Series at their principal amount (or at such other early redemption amount as maybe specified in the relevant Final Terms), together with accrued interest (if any) thereon. Provided that (A), save in case of Instruments which bear interest at a floating rate, no such notice may be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Bank would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the relevant Instruments then due and (B) prior to the publication of any notice of redemption for taxation reasons, the Bank shall deliver to the Fiscal Agent or, in the case of Registered Instruments, the Registrar a certificate signed by two duly authorised officers of the Bank stating that the Bank is entitled to effect such redemption for taxation reasons and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Bank so to redeem have occurred and an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Bank has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Optional Early Redemption (Call)

6.03 Subject to Condition 6.01, if this Condition 6.03 is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, then the Bank may, upon the expiry of the appropriate notice and subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms, redeem in whole (but not, unless and to the extent that the relevant Final Terms specifies otherwise, in part only), of the Instruments of the relevant Series at either their principal amount or at 101 per cent. of their principal amount, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

6.04 The appropriate notice referred to in Condition 6.02 and 6.03 is a notice given by the Bank to the Fiscal Agent, the Registrar (in the case of Registered Instruments) and the Holders of the Instruments of the relevant Series, which notice shall be signed by two duly authorised officers of the Bank and shall specify:

- the Series of Instruments subject to redemption;
- whether such Series is to be redeemed in whole or in part only and, if in part only, the aggregate principal amount of the Instruments of the relevant Series which are to be redeemed; and
- the due date for such redemption, which shall be not less than thirty days (or such lesser period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) after the date on which such notice is validly given.

Any such notice shall be irrevocable, and the delivery thereof shall oblige the Bank to make the redemption therein specified.

Partial Redemption

6.05 If the Instruments of a Series are to be redeemed in part only on any date in accordance with Condition 6.03:

- in the case of Bearer Instruments, the Instruments to be redeemed shall be drawn by lot in such European city as the Fiscal Agent may specify, or identified in such other manner or in such other place as the Fiscal Agent may approve and deem appropriate and fair, subject always to compliance with all applicable laws and the requirements of any stock exchange on which the relevant Instruments may be listed; and
- in the case of Registered Instruments, the Instruments shall be redeemed pro rata to their principal amounts, subject always as aforesaid.

Optional Early Redemption (Put)

6.06 If this Condition 6.06 is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, then the Bank shall, upon the exercise of the relevant option by the Holder of any Instrument of the relevant Series (other than in the case of a holder of a Tier 2 Instrument), redeem such Instrument on the date or the next of the dates specified in the relevant Final Terms at either its principal amount or at 101 per cent. of its principal amount, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon. In order to exercise such option, the Holder must, not less than forty-five days before the date so specified (or such other period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms), deposit the relevant Instrument (together, in the case of an interest-bearing Definitive Instrument, with any unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto) with, in the case of a Bearer Instrument, any Paying Agent or, in the case of a Registered Instrument, the Registrar together with a duly completed redemption notice in the form which is available from the specified office of any of the Paying Agents or, as the case may be, the Registrar.

Early redemption of Zero Coupon Instruments

6.07 Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Instrument at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:

- (a) the Reference Price; and
- (b) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which the Instrument becomes due and payable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, the calculation in respect of the period of less than a full year shall be made on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms for the purposes of this Condition 6.07 or, if none is so specified, a Day Count Fraction of 30E/360.

Early Redemption Following a Capital Event

- 6.08 Subject to Condition 6.09, if this Condition 6.08 is specified in the applicable Final Terms as being applicable to an issue of Tier 2 Instruments, then if a Capital Event occurs the Bank may, subject to the prior approval of the FFSA (if then required), at its option, elect to redeem the Tier 2 Instruments in whole (but not in part) at either their principal amount or at 101 per cent. of their principal amount (as shall be specified in the relevant Final Terms), together with accrued but unpaid interest (if any) thereon, by giving appropriate notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 15.

The appropriate notice referred to in this Condition 6.08 is a notice given by the Bank to the Fiscal Agent and the Holders of the Instruments, which notice shall be signed by two duly authorised officers of the Bank and shall specify:

- (a) that a Capital Event has occurred and is continuing;
- (b) that the Bank has obtained the prior written consent of the FFSA, provided that at the relevant time such consent is required to be given; and
- (c) the due date for such redemption, which shall be not less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date on which such notice is validly given.

Any such notice shall be irrevocable and the delivery thereof shall oblige the Bank to make the redemption therein specified.

In this Condition:

"Capital Event" means the determination by the Bank, after consultation with the FFSA, that as a result of a change in Finnish law or Applicable Banking Regulations or any change in the official application or interpretation thereof becoming effective on or after the Issue Date (including as a result of the implementation or applicability in Finland of CRD IV on or after the Issue Date) which change was not reasonably foreseeable by the Bank as at Issue Date, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Tier 2 Instruments is fully excluded from inclusion in the Tier 2 Capital (as defined in Condition 3B.01) of the Bank (other than as a result of any applicable limitation on the amount of such capital as applicable to the Bank);

"CRD IV" means, taken together, the (i) CRD IV Directive, (ii) CRD IV Regulation and (iii) any CRD IV Implementing Measures;

"CRD IV Implementing Measures" means any regulatory capital rules or regulations, or other requirements, which are applicable to the Bank or the Bank and its subsidiaries and which prescribe (alone or in conjunction with any other rules or regulations) the requirements to be fulfilled by financial instruments for their inclusion in the regulatory capital of the Bank or the Bank and its subsidiaries (on a solo or consolidated basis, as the case may be) to the extent required by the CRD IV Directive or the CRD IV Regulation, including for the avoidance of doubt any regulatory technical standards released by the European Banking Authority (or any successor or replacement thereof);

"CRD IV Regulation" means Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms of the European Parliament and of the Council of June 26, 2013, as the same may be amended or replaced from time to time; and

Restrictions on early redemption of Tier 2 Instruments

- 6.09 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Condition 6 (Redemption and Purchase), the Bank may redeem the Tier 2 Instruments (and give notice thereof to the Holders) only if it has obtained the prior approval of the FFSA (if such approval is then required under the Applicable Banking Regulations).

Purchase of Instruments

- 6.10 The Bank may at any time purchase Instruments in the open market or otherwise and at any price provided that, in the case of interest-bearing Definitive Instruments, any unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto are purchased therewith and provided that in the case of Tier 2 Instruments, any such purchases will be made in accordance with the Applicable Banking Regulations and subject to the prior approval of the FFSA, to the extent such approval is then required under the Applicable Banking Regulations.

Cancellation of Redeemed and Purchased Instruments

- 6.11 All unmatured Instruments redeemed or purchased in accordance with this Condition and, in the case of interest-bearing Definitive Instruments, all unmatured Coupons attached thereto or surrendered or purchased therewith may be held, resold or cancelled. References in this Condition to the purchase of Instruments by the Bank shall not include the purchase of Instruments in the ordinary course of business of dealing in securities or the purchase of Instruments otherwise than as beneficial owner.

7. Events of Default

7A. Events of Default - Unsubordinated Instruments

- 7A.01 This Condition 7A is applicable in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being unsubordinated or not specified as being subordinated.

- 7A.02 Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following events or circumstances (each an "Event of Default") shall be events of default in relation to the Instruments of any relevant Series, namely:

- (a) there is default in the payment of any principal or other redemption amount due in respect of the Instruments for more than ten business days; or
- (b) there is default in the payment of interest in respect of the Instruments for more than ten business days; or

- (e) an order is made or an effective resolution is passed for the winding-up or liquidation of the Bank or any Material Subsidiary (otherwise than in the case of the Bank in connection with or in pursuance of a reorganisation or reconstruction approved by the relevant authority, as the case may be, upon which the continuing corporation or the corporation formed as a result of such reorganisation or reconstruction effectively assumes the entire obligations of the Bank under the Instruments and any Coupons appertaining thereto and the whole or substantially the whole of the business and assets of the Bank are vested in that corporation, which shall either be a legal entity which is formed under Finnish law or shall indemnify and hold harmless the Holder of each Instrument and any Coupons appertaining thereto against any and all taxes, charges, duties, liabilities, costs and expenses of whatever nature incurred by or levied against the Holder of such Instrument or Coupon by reason of such assumption of obligations and is authorised to carry on the business of a bank in the Republic of Finland, and in the case of a Material Subsidiary, where the whole or substantially the whole of the business and assets of that Material Subsidiary are vested in a Subsidiary or Subsidiaries of the Bank or in the Bank) or the Bank or any Material Subsidiary institutes proceedings seeking adjudication of bankruptcy or seeking with respect to itself a decree of commencement of composition under applicable Finnish law or the applicable law of any other jurisdiction, or consents to the institution of any such proceedings, or consents to, or acquiesces in, the appointment of a receiver or liquidator or trustee or assignee in bankruptcy or insolvency of it or of all or any material part of its property, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

- (f) the Bank or any Material Subsidiary stops payment (within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Law of the Republic of Finland) or ceases, or through an official action of its Board of Directors threatens to cease, to carry on its business or a substantial part thereof (otherwise than in connection with or in pursuance of such reorganisation or reconstruction as is referred to in (e) above).

- 7A.03 If any Event of Default shall occur in relation to any Series of Instruments, any Holder of any Instrument of the relevant Series may by written notice to the Bank declare such Instrument and (if the Instrument is interest bearing) all interest then accrued on such Instrument to be forthwith due and payable, whereupon the same shall become immediately due and payable at its principal amount (or, at such other amount as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) unless prior to the time when the Bank receives such notice the situation giving rise to the notice has been cured, provided, however, that in the event specified in (c) any notice declaring the Instruments due shall become effective only when the Bank has received such notices from the Holders of at least one-fifth in principal amount of the relevant Instruments then outstanding.

7B. Events of Default - Tier 2 Instruments

- 7B.01 This Condition 7B is applicable in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being Tier 2 Instruments.

- 7B.02 Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following events or circumstances (each an "Event of Default") shall be events of default in relation to the Instruments of any relevant Series, namely:

As a result, nothing in this Condition 19 (Law and jurisdiction) prevents any Holders of the Instruments from taking proceedings relating to a Dispute ("Proceedings") in any other courts with jurisdiction. To the extent allowed by law, Holders of the Instruments may take concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.

19.05 Process agent: The Bank agrees that the documents which start any Proceedings in England and any other documents required to be served in relation to those Proceedings may be served on it by being delivered to SH Process Agents Limited, 1 Finsbury Circus, London EC2M 7SH or, if different, its registered office for the time being. If such person is not or ceases to be effectively appointed to accept service of process on behalf of the Bank in England, the Bank shall, on the written demand of the Fiscal Agent addressed and delivered to the Bank, appoint a further person in England to accept service of process on its behalf and, failing such appointment within 15 days, the Fiscal Agent shall be entitled to appoint such a person by written notice addressed to the Bank and delivered to the Bank. Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of any Holder of the Instruments to serve process in any other manner permitted by law. This Condition applies to Proceedings in England and to Proceedings elsewhere.

19.06 The Bank agrees to pay any stamp, registration, documentary or other duties or taxes payable in connection with the enforcement of any Instrument or Coupon where such duties or taxes are incurred in connection with the enforcement of any such Instrument or Coupon and where such duties or taxes are incurred in connection with any Proceedings resulting in a decision in favour of the Holder of such Instrument or Coupon. In addition, the Bank hereby agrees to indemnify the Holder of any Instrument or Coupon in respect of any stamp duty incurred by such Holder as a pre-condition to the Courts of the Republic of Finland admitting any Instrument or Coupon in evidence and where such stamp duty is incurred in connection with any Proceedings resulting in a decision in favour of the Holder of such Instrument or Coupon.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The proceeds of the issue of each Series of Instruments will be used by the Bank for general corporate purposes.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE INSTRUMENTS WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Clearing System Accountholders

In relation to any tranche of Instruments represented by a Global Instrument in bearer form, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments to "Holder of Instruments" are references to the bearer of the relevant Global Instrument which, for so long as the Global Instrument is held by a depositary or a common depositary, in the case of a CGI, or a common safekeeper, in the case of an NGI for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or, as the case may be, common safekeeper.

In relation to any tranche of Instruments represented by a Global Registered Instrument, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments to "Holder of Instruments" are references to the person in whose name such Global Registered Instrument is for the time being registered in the Register which, for so long as the Global Registered Instrument is held by or on behalf of a depositary or a common depositary or a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper.

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Instrument or a Global Registered Instrument (each an "Accountholder") must look solely to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or such other relevant clearing system (as the case may be) for such Accountholder's share of each payment made by the Bank to the holder of such Global Instrument and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Instrument. The extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under such Global Instrument or a Global Registered Instrument will be determined by the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and any other relevant clearing system from time to time. For so long as the relevant Instruments are represented by a Global Instrument or a Global Registered Instrument, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against the Bank in respect of payments due under the Instruments and such obligations of the Bank will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Instrument or a Global Registered Instrument.

Exchange of Temporary Global Instruments

Whenever any interest in a Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument, the Bank shall procure:

- (a) in the case of first exchange, the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Instrument, duly authenticated and, in the case of an NGI, effectuated, to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument; or
- (b) in the case of any subsequent exchange, an increase in the principal amount of such Permanent Global Instrument in accordance with its terms, in each case in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates issued by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and received by the Fiscal Agent against presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Whenever a Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, the Bank shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument against the surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) a Permanent Global Instrument has not been delivered or the principal amount thereof increased by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the seventh day after the bearer of a Temporary Global

Instrument has requested exchange of an interest in the Temporary Global Instrument for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument; or

- (b) Definitive Instruments have not been delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer of a Temporary Global Instrument has requested exchange of the Temporary Global Instrument for Definitive Instruments; or
- (c) a Temporary Global Instrument (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of a Temporary Global Instrument has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Instrument on the due date for payment, then the Temporary Global Instrument (including the obligation to deliver a Permanent Global Instrument or increase the principal amount thereof or deliver Definitive Instruments, as the case may be) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such seventh day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (b) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (c) above) and the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument or others may have under a deed of covenant dated 3 June 2014 (the "Deed of Covenant") executed by the Bank). Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Temporary Global Instrument will acquire directly against the Bank all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Temporary Global Instrument became void, they had been the holders of Definitive Instruments in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Exchange of Permanent Global Instruments

Whenever a Permanent Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, the Bank shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument against the surrender of the Permanent Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) Definitive Instruments have not been delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer of a Permanent Global Instrument has duly requested exchange of the Permanent Global Instrument for Definitive Instruments; or
- (b) a Permanent Global Instrument (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of the Instruments has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Global Instrument on the due date for payment, then the Permanent Global Instrument (including the obligation to deliver Definitive Instruments) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument or others may have under the Deed of Covenant. Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument will acquire directly against the Bank all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Permanent Global Instrument became void, they had been the holders of Definitive Instruments in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

As a result, the Central Cooperative holds on 25 April 2014 98.41 per cent. of Pohjola Bank's shares and 99.14 per cent. of the votes. Since the Central Cooperative has more than nine tenths (9/10) of all shares and votes in Pohjola Bank, it has the right, under the Finnish Companies Act (Osakeyhtiölaki 21.7.2006/624, as amended), to redeem (by exercise of squeeze-out rights) all of the Series A shares held by Pohjola Bank's remaining shareholders at the fair price. The Central Cooperative has filed an application with the Redemption Committee of the Central Chamber of Commerce for instituting arbitration proceedings related to the redemption of the remaining Series A shares. In its application, the Central Cooperative has announced that in arbitration it will demand that the redemption price of Series A shares be EUR 16.13 per share. The Central Cooperative's intention is to apply for permission from the Helsinki Stock Exchange to cease trading in Pohjola Bank's Series A shares on the official list of the Helsinki Stock Exchange and to delist the Series A shares from the official list. Furthermore, the intention of the Central Cooperative is for Pohjola Insurance Ltd and Pohjola Asset Management Ltd, which are owned by Pohjola Bank, to be transferred through various structural arrangements to the Central Cooperative as fully-owned direct subsidiaries, as well as for Pohjola Bank and Helsinki OP Bank Plc to merge. Consequently, the assets and liabilities of the transferred businesses will be presented in accordance with IFRS 5 as held for distribution to owners in the balance sheet and the results as discontinued operations in the income statement of Pohjola's Consolidated Financial Statements when the criteria of IFRS 5 are met.

Apart from these businesses the Bank is the central financing institution of the Member Cooperative Banks and is responsible for the OP-Pohjola Group's liquidity management and international affairs. Pohjola Bank focuses on serving customers both at home and abroad. Through its alliances, Pohjola Bank is able to deliver banking services to its customers in a cost-effective and locally oriented way also abroad. The current Pohjola Group comprises the parent company Pohjola Bank plc and its subsidiaries (together the "Pohjola Group"). The most significant subsidiaries engaged in business operations include Pohjola Insurance Ltd, A-Insurance Ltd, Eurooppalainen Insurance Company Ltd, Pohjola Property Management Ltd, Pohjola Asset Management Limited and Seesam non-life insurance company operating in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. outpatient surgery specialising in the examination and treatment of orthopaedic diseases and injuries. The hospital began to operate in early 2013. Pohjola Group employed approximately 2,550 people at the end of 2013 (at the end of 2012 the figure was 3,404).

Pohjola Group has three business segments. The three business segments comprise Banking, Asset Management and Non-life Insurance.

Pohjola's Banking business segment provides corporate and institutional customers with solutions for their financing and financial management needs. The Banking segment consists of the following business divisions: Corporate Banking, Markets and Baltic Banking. Corporate Banking provides corporate and institutional customers with financing and cash management services and financing services for foreign trade and grants loans and guarantees as well as leasing services and financing using accounts receivables as collateral. Markets division's services range from the arrangement of debt issues, corporate finance services and custody, equity, foreign exchange, money market and derivative products to investment research. Markets executes orders placed by both its clients and Pohjola Bank in international markets and is also an active player in international derivatives markets, the government bond market in the Euro area and corporate bond markets. In 2013, Pohjola reorganised its capital market functions by combining the functions specialising in debt and equity financing. As part of this change, Pohjola Corporate Finance Ltd merged with Pohjola Bank plc on 31 December 2013. Its customers comprise Finnish and international companies and institutions and its income derives from net commissions and income from trading. Pohjola Bank provides corporate customer services through the branch offices in all of the Baltic countries. Corporate customer services in the Baltic countries consist of payment and liquidity management and working capital, leasing and investment financing. Baltic banking activities are still minimal, amounting to around 2 per cent. of Pohjola Bank's total corporate exposure.

In Finland, the following three Group companies conduct Non-life Insurance business: Pohjola Insurance Ltd is a general non-life insurance company, A-Insurance Ltd focuses on non-life insurance for commercial transport and Eurooppalainen Insurance Company Ltd specialises in travel insurance. Non-life insurance business in Estonia is conducted by the Seesam company with a branch in both Latvia and Lithuania. Pohjola Health Ltd and Excenta Ltd merged at the beginning of 2012 and the merged company now operates under the name of Pohjola Health Ltd.

The range of Non-life Insurance products includes non-life policies for corporate and private customers. In addition, the domestic service network provides corporate customers with OP-Pohjola Group's life and pension policies and Ilmarinen Mutual Pension Insurance Company's employment pension policies while being in charge of customer service for Suomi Mutual Life Assurance Company and Ilmarinen. Furthermore, commissions and fees come from managing certain statutory charges and from risk management services. The Non-life Insurance segment also includes Omasairaala Oy which started its business in early 2013.

Pohjola Asset Management offers a broad range of comprehensive asset management services, discretionary portfolio management and consultative asset management services for Finnish institutions and wealthy private individuals and families. Furthermore, the portfolio management of OP Fund Management Company's mutual funds is mainly centralised in Pohjola Asset Management. The Asset Management business line comprises Pohjola Asset Management Ltd, Pohjola Property Management Ltd and the affiliated company Access Capital Partners Group SA.

Business divisions have their own goals and strategies directed by Group level and operation models are customised to the nature of each business division. Business divisions support with their actions the realisation of the strategy of the Pohjola Group.

Centralised within Finance and Central Banking, Group Treasury is responsible for OP-Pohjola Group's financing and liquidity management as well as the management of OP-Pohjola Group's investment operations. Group Treasury also serves as an internal bank in charge of Pohjola Bank's financial and interest rate risk management. It also manages OP-Pohjola Group's liquidity reserves and wholesale funding.

Pohjola Bank is a credit institution under public supervision. Supervision according to the Credit Institution Act is carried out by the FFSA, which operates in conjunction with the Bank of Finland. Pohjola Bank is also supervised by OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative as stated in the Act on Amalgamations of Deposit Banks (Laki talletuspankkien yhteenliittymästä, 24.6.2010/599, (the "Amalgamations Act")). In November 2014 the ECB will take over supervisory responsibilities for OP-Pohjola Group as credit institution.

Pohjola Bank as a Part of OP-Pohjola Group

Pohjola Bank is the most significant subsidiary of OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative (the "Central Cooperative", in Finnish "OP-Pohjola osk"). The Central Cooperative announced on 6 February 2014 of a public voluntary bid for all Pohjola Bank shares. Bid price was EUR 16,80 per Series A and K share. The acceptance period under the tender offer commenced on 24 February 2014 and expired on 1 April 2014. The acceptance period was extended with an extra offer period which commenced on 7 April 2014 and expired on 22 April 2014. The offered consideration was EUR 16.13 for each Series A share in accordance with the terms and conditions of the bid. As a result, the Central Cooperative held on 25 April 2014 98.41 per cent. of Pohjola Bank's shares and 99.14 per cent. of the votes. Since the Central Cooperative has more than nine-tenths of all shares and votes in Pohjola Bank, it has the right, under the Finnish Companies Act, to redeem (right of squeeze-out) all of the Series A shares held by Pohjola Bank's remaining shareholders at the fair price. The Central Cooperative has filed an application with the Redemption Committee of the Central Chamber of Commerce for instituting arbitration proceedings related to the redemption of minority shares. In its application, the Central Cooperative has announced that in arbitration it will demand that the redemption price of Series A share be EUR 16.13 per share. The Central Cooperative's intention is to apply for permission from the Helsinki Stock Exchange to cease trading in the Pohjola Bank's Series A shares on the official list of the Helsinki Stock Exchange and to delist the Series A shares from the official list. Furthermore, the intention of the Central Cooperative is for Pohjola Insurance Ltd and Pohjola Asset Management Ltd, which are owned by Pohjola Bank, to be transferred through various structural arrangements to the Central Cooperative as fully-owned direct subsidiaries, as well as for Pohjola Bank and Helsinki OP Bank Plc to merge. Consequently, the assets and liabilities of the transferred businesses will be presented in accordance with IFRS 5 as held for distribution to owners in the balance sheet and the results as discontinued operations in the income statement of Pohjola's Consolidated Financial Statements when the criteria of IFRS 5 are met. The arrangements are expected to generate approximately EUR 50 million per annum in synergy benefits for OP-Pohjola Group, of which approximately EUR 20 million is estimated to come from cost synergies and EUR 30 million from revenue synergies. The OP-Pohjola Group Central Consolidated is expected to generate the majority of the synergies. The synergies will be fully implemented over approximately five years. However, it is possible that the arrangements mentioned above do not succeed as expected. Furthermore, cost and revenue synergies may not be generated as expected.

OP-Pohjola Group (formerly the OP Bank Group) began its operations in its current form without the non-life insurance business on 1 July 1997. OP-Pohjola Group is an amalgamation of Finnish cooperative banks and related entities forming a financial consortium as regulated by the Amalgamations Act. The Amalgamations Act, the Credit Institution Act, the Act on Cooperative Banks and Other Credit Institutions in the Form of a Cooperative (Laki osuuspankeista ja muista osuuskuntamuotoisista luottolaitoksista 14.6.2013/423, as amended, (the "Cooperative Bank Act")) and the Act on Cooperatives (Osuuskuntalaki 14.6.2013/421, as amended) establish the main legal framework for cooperative banking applicable to OP-Pohjola Group.

In accordance with applicable law, OP-Pohjola Group comprises (a) the Central Cooperative as OP-Pohjola Group's central institution, (b) some 180 member cooperative banks (the "Member Cooperative Banks"), (c) Pohjola Bank plc as central bank of OP-Pohjola Group, (d) the companies belonging to the consolidation groups of the Central Cooperative and (e) the Member Credit Institutions described below.

In accordance with Chapter 1, Section 2 of the Amalgamations Act, the Member Credit Institutions consist of Pohjola Bank plc, Helsinki OP Bank plc, OP Card Company Plc, OP Mortgage Bank, OP Process Services Ltd and the Member Cooperative Banks. These Member Credit Institutions and the Central Cooperative are responsible for each other's liabilities and commitments in accordance with the Cooperative Bank Act and the Amalgamations Act.

Since Pohjola Bank is a subsidiary of the Central Cooperative and a part of the amalgamation, it is dependent upon the other entities within the amalgamation. The dependence is based on the Central Cooperative's ownership of Pohjola Bank as well as on the joint liability for one another's liabilities and commitments. Furthermore according to the strategic perspective, Pohjola Bank is the commercial bank of OP-Pohjola Group and it acts as the central bank of the Member Cooperative Banks.

Under the Amalgamations Act, the Central Cooperative is responsible for issuing to the Member Credit Institutions guidelines with the aim of ensuring their liquidity, capital adequacy and risk management, and guidelines for the application of coherent accounting principles in compiling the consolidated financial statements of OP-Pohjola Group. The Central Cooperative is also responsible for the Internal

Capital Adequacy Assessment Process ("ICAAP") for OP-Pohjola Group. The Central Cooperative also has an obligation to monitor the operations of the Member Credit Institutions and their consolidation groups, and to issue directions concerning the internal supervision of the Member Credit Institutions. The obligation to issue guidelines and exercise supervision does not however give the Central Cooperative the power to determine the business operations of the Member Credit Institutions. Each Member Credit Institution carries on its business independently within the scope of its own resources.

The Company Structure of OP-Pohjola Group and Pohjola Group (as at 25 April 2014). For information on the tender offer and structural arrangements see "Pohjola Bank as a Part of OP-Pohjola Group".

Conflicts of Interests

There are no potential conflicts of interest between the duties to the Bank of the members of the Bank's administrative, management and supervisory bodies and their other duties and private interests.

Corporate Governance in Pohjola Bank

In its operations, Pohjola Bank complies with Finnish legislation. In addition to the Finnish Companies Act (Osakeyhtiölaki 21.7.2006/624, as amended), Pohjola Bank complies with regulations governing public limited companies, financial services companies and insurance companies, and its Articles of Association. Pohjola also complies with the Finnish Corporate Governance Code (the "Code"), approved by the Securities Market Association from time to time (latest version in June 2010), and the Insider Guidelines issued by NASDAQ OMX Helsinki.

However, Pohjola Bank's corporate governance and control system deviates from the following Code recommendations for reasons attributable to the Group structure and intense cooperation between Pohjola Bank and OP-Pohjola Group's other entities:

- Recommendations 8 and 10: election and term of Board members (the General Meeting of Pohjola Bank's shareholders does not elect persons acting as the Board of Directors' Chairman and Vice Chairman, as the Board of Directors is chaired by the Chairman of the Central Cooperative's Executive Board and the Central Cooperative Executive Board Vice Chairman acts as the Board's Vice Chairman, by virtue of applicable legislation and Pohjola Bank's Articles of Association. The term of the Chairman and Vice Chairman is valid until further notice);
- Recommendation 14: independence of Board members (the majority of Board members are not independent of Pohjola Bank; five Board members are executive members dependent on Pohjola Bank and three are non-executive members independent of Pohjola Bank);
- Recommendation 26: independence of members of the Audit Committee (not all of the Audit Committee members are independent of Pohjola Bank; two Committee members are non-executive members independent of Pohjola Bank and one is an executive member dependent on the Pohjola Bank); and
- Recommendation 32: independence of members of the Remuneration Committee (the majority of Remuneration Committee members are not independent of Pohjola Bank; two Committee members are executive members dependent on Pohjola Bank and one is a non-executive member independent of Pohjola Bank).

Shares and Major Shareholders

Pohjola Bank's shares are divided into Series A and Series K shares. Series A shares are available for subscription by the general public and are quoted on NASDAQ OMX Helsinki (Helsinki Stock Exchange). While Series A shares have been quoted on the Large Cap List of Helsinki Stock Exchange since 1989, Series K shares represent unlisted shares held only by OP-Pohjola Group's member cooperative banks, cooperative bank companies and OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative. Series K shares may be converted into series A shares if so required by a holder of Series K shares.

OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative announced on 6 February 2014 of a public voluntary bid for all Pohjola Bank plc shares. As a result of the tender offer, OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative held on 25 April 2014 98.41 per cent. of Pohjola Bank plc's shares and 99.14 per cent. of the votes. OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative's intention is to apply for permission from the Helsinki Stock Exchange to cease trading in Pohjola Bank plc's A Shares on the official list of the Helsinki Stock Exchange and to delist the A Shares from the official list. For more information on the tender offer see "Pohjola Bank as a Part of OP-Pohjola Group".

Series A shares entitle their holders to an annual dividend which is at least three (3) cents higher than the dividend declared on Series K shares. At the Annual General Meeting, one Series K share entitles its holder to five votes and one Series A share to one vote.

INFORMATION ON OP-POHJOLA GROUP AND THE CENTRAL COOPERATIVE

Information Related to OP-Pohjola Group and the Central Cooperative

Pursuant to the Amalgamations Act, the amalgamation of cooperative banks comprises the organisation's central institution, OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative, Pohjola Bank which acts as the central bank of the member cooperative banks, other member credit institutions of the central institution, the companies belonging to the consolidation groups of the central institution and the member credit institutions as well as credit and financial institutions and service companies in which one or more of the above-mentioned entities alone or jointly hold a total of more than half of the total votes. According to the Cooperative Bank Act and Amalgamations Act, the amalgamation of the cooperative banks is monitored on a consolidated basis, and the central institution and its member credit institutions are ultimately jointly responsible for each other's liabilities and commitments as clarified further below. The extent of OP-Pohjola Group differs from that of the amalgamation of the cooperative banks in that OP-Pohjola Group subsumes companies other than credit and financial institutions or service companies. The most important of these are the insurance companies with which the amalgamation forms a financial and insurance conglomerate.

Within OP-Pohjola Group's central institution, the Central Cooperative, the highest decision-making authority rests with the cooperative meeting and the Supervisory Board elected by it. Operational decision-making authority is exercised by the Executive Board, which is elected by the Supervisory Board. The Central Cooperative was entered into the trade register maintained by the National Board of Patents and Registration in Finland on 23 May 1997. The Central Cooperative's business identity code is 0242522-1. The Central Cooperative's registered address is OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative, Teollisuuskatu 1b, FI-00510 Helsinki (office address Vääksyntie 4), Finland and its telephone number is +358 10 252 010. OP-Pohjola Group's financial period is the calendar year.

Joint liability of OP-Pohjola Group

OP-Pohjola Group comprises (a) the Central Cooperative as OP-Pohjola Group's central institution, (b) some 180 Member Cooperative Banks, (c) Pohjola Bank plc as the central bank of OP-Pohjola Group, (d) the companies belonging to the consolidation groups of the Central Cooperative and (e) the Member Credit Institutions, other than the Cooperative Banks, described below (together, the "OP-Pohjola Group" or the "Group").

In accordance with Chapter 1, Section 2 of the Amalgamations Act, the Member Credit Institutions consist of Pohjola Bank plc, Helsinki OP Bank plc, OP Card Company Plc, OP Mortgage Bank, OP Process Services Ltd and the Member Cooperative Banks (together, the "Member Credit Institutions"). These Member Credit Institutions and the Central Cooperative are responsible for each other's liabilities and commitments in accordance with the Amalgamations Act. The Supervisory Board of the Central Cooperative takes decisions on admitting new members.

OP-Pohjola Group does not form a corporate group as defined in the Accounting Act (Kirjanpitolaki 30.12.1997/1336, as amended) or a consolidation group as defined in the Credit Institution Act. Under Finnish laws on bank supervision, OP-Pohjola Group is monitored on a consolidated basis.

Under the Amalgamations Act, the Central Cooperative is responsible for issuing guidelines on risk management, good corporate governance, internal control and guidelines for the application of uniform accounting principles in preparing the consolidated financial statements of the OP-Pohjola Group to the Member Credit Institutions, with the aim of ensuring their liquidity and capital adequacy. The Central Cooperative also supervises the Member Credit Institutions' compliance with the applicable rules and regulations in respect of their financial position, any provisions issued by the relevant supervising authorities, their statutes and articles of associations. The obligation to issue guidelines and exercise supervision does not however give the Central Cooperative the power to determine the business operations of the Member Credit Institutions or the Member Cooperative Banks. Each Member Credit Institution carries on its business independently within the scope of its own resources.

In summary, the Amalgamations Act prescribes the following with respect to the joint liability of the OP-Pohjola Group:

- (a) The Central Cooperative must pay to each Member Credit Institution an amount that is necessary in order to prevent such Member Credit Institution's liquidation. The Central Cooperative is responsible for the payments of any debts of a Member Credit Institution that cannot be paid using such Member Credit Institution's own funds.

- (b) A Member Credit Institution must pay to the Central Cooperative a proportionate share of the amount which the Central Cooperative has paid either to another Member Credit Institution as part of the support action described above, or to a creditor of such Member Credit Institution as payment of a due debt for which the creditor has not received payment from his debtor. Furthermore, upon the insolvency of the Central Cooperative a Member Credit Institution has an unlimited liability to pay the debts of the Central Cooperative as set out in Chapter 14 of the Act on Cooperatives.
- (c) Each Member Credit Institution's liability, for the amount which the Central Cooperative has paid on behalf of one Member Credit Institution to its creditors, is divided between the Member Credit Institutions in proportion to their last confirmed balance sheet totals.
- (d) If the funds of any Member Credit Institution fall below the minimum set out in the Act on Credit Institutions or the Amalgamations Act, as the case may be, the Central Cooperative is entitled to receive credit from the other Member Credit Institutions by collecting from such other Member Credit Institutions additional repayable payments to be used to support actions to prevent liquidation of the Member Credit Institution. The annual aggregate amount of the payments collected from the Member Credit Institutions on this basis may in each accounting period be a maximum amount of five thousandths of the last confirmed balance sheet total of each Member Credit Institution.
- (e) A creditor who has not received payment from a Member Credit Institution on a due receivable (principal debt) may demand payment from the Central Cooperative, when the principal debt falls due. As a result, pursuant to the Amalgamations Act, the Central Cooperative is responsible for the payment of such debts. Having made such payment the Central Cooperative has a right to collect proportionate shares of the payment from Member Credit Institutions as described above in paragraph (b).

Other entities than the Member Credit Institutions, such as OP-Pohjola Group's insurance companies and OP-Services Ltd, do not fall within the scope of joint liability.

Owner-membership

The cooperative movement is OP-Pohjola Group's ideological foundation and the starting point for its strategic objectives. OP-Pohjola Group has over four million customers, of which approximately 1.4 million (on 31 March 2014) are the Member Cooperative Banks' owner-members. Owner-members are customers who use the services of a Member Cooperative Bank and are also members of the said Member Cooperative Bank. It follows naturally from this combination of ownership and customership that the benefit and added value of each Bank's operations are channelled, via the customer relationship, to owner-members and customers. The fundamental objective of cooperative operations is thus not to maximise profits for the owners but to provide, as competitively as possible, the services which the cooperative's owner members and customers need.

Owner-membership is a distinctive feature of the Member Cooperative Bank customer relationship. Owner-membership offers a chance to participate in the relevant Member Cooperative Bank's administration and decision-making. In addition, owner-membership brings benefits through the focusing of one's banking matters with a Member Cooperative Bank. The Member Cooperative Banks have the corporate form of a cooperative, in which the basic values underlying decision-making include the one member, one vote principle. Within the Member Cooperative Banks, the highest decision-making body is the cooperative meeting or assembly, which elects a Supervisory Board for the Member Cooperative Bank. The Supervisory Board elects an Executive Board for the Member Cooperative Bank. A person can become an owner-member of a Member Cooperative Bank by paying a cooperative contribution and applying for membership. The owner-members, who are made up primarily of private individuals, elect from among their number the administrative staff of their own bank. The Member Cooperative Banks' basic capital consists of the cooperative capital and any supplementary cooperative capital. The total amount of cooperative capital investments by owner-members was EUR 759 million as at 31 March 2014 (unaudited).

Member Cooperative Banks

The Member Cooperative Banks are independent, local deposit banks that are engaged in retail banking (the "Member Cooperative Banks"). In their area of operations they offer modern and competitive banking services to household customers, small and medium-sized business customers, agricultural and forestry customers and to public sector entities. Recent Events

Efficiency-enhancement programme

OP-Pohjola Group completed in late 2012 an Information and Consultation of Employees process related to the efficiency-enhancement programme of OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative Consolidated, resulting in 561 jobs being cut and the work of 150 people being outsourced.

The efficiency-enhancement programme's objective has been to achieve annual savings of EUR 150 million until the end of 2015. Within the framework of the programme, the production of services for OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative Consolidated and OP-Pohjola Group member cooperative banks was centralised in OP-Services Ltd that is undergoing a major transformation.

New Group-level targets within OP-Pohjola Group's long-term remuneration schemes.

OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative's Supervisory Board decided on new Group-level targets within OP-Pohjola Group's long-term remuneration schemes. The Group-level targets are congruent both in the management incentive scheme and OP-Pohjola Group's Personnel Fund.

OP-Pohjola has decided to extend the performance period for the long-term management incentive scheme launched in 2011 by another three-year period covering 2014–16. In addition, the remuneration scheme for employees based on OP-Pohjola Group's Personnel Fund will continue with performance periods of one year.

When creating the incentive schemes, OP-Pohjola Group has taken account of amended regulation governing remuneration policies and practices in the financial services industry. The incentive scheme for 2014–16 follows the main principles applied in the previous three-year performance period. The performance indicators, maximum bonuses and the remuneration tool will change and OP-Pohjola has specified the terms and conditions to be in line with upcoming changes in regulation.

OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative's Supervisory Board has set OP-Pohjola Group's earnings before tax, the Group's Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) capital ratio and growth in the number of customers using OP-Pohjola as their main bank and insurer as the new long-term performance indicators.

OP-Pohjola Group's long-term management incentive scheme includes some 350 people and their maximum bonus is determined by the management position. Provided that the targets are achieved at the maximum level set for them, those included in the scheme have the opportunity to receive an annual bonus equalling their 2–8-month regular salary subject to PAYE tax.

OP-Pohjola Group updated its capital adequacy target

In light of increased regulatory requirements and the need to preserve the OP-Pohjola Group's competitive position towards customers, rating agencies and funding markets, the OP-Pohjola Group has decided to raise the common equity tier 1 target for the OP-Pohjola Group from 15 per cent. currently to 18 per cent. The target is to be reached by 2016.

Risk-bearing Capacity and Capital Adequacy

The primary objective of risk management within OP-Pohjola Group is to secure the risk-bearing capacity of all entities belonging to the Group and to ensure that they do not take on excessive risk that might endanger the profitability, capital adequacy or continuity of the operations of an individual entity or the entire Group.

The purpose of risk management within OP-Pohjola Group is to identify threats and opportunities that impact the implementation of the Group's strategy.

OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative is responsible for OP-Pohjola Group's capital adequacy management at Group level and ensuring that any related systems are adequate and appropriate. Each OP-Pohjola Group institution is responsible for its own risk and capital adequacy management.

OP-Pohjola Group as a financial conglomerate measures OP-Pohjola Group's risk-bearing capacity by the ratio of own funds to the minimum amount of own funds as defined in the Act on the Supervision of Financial and Insurance Conglomerates. On 31 March 2014 the ratio of own funds to the minimum amount was 2.00 compared with 1.90 at 31 December 2013. The OP-Pohjola Group's own funds at 31 March 2014 were EUR 3,191 million (3,359 as at 31 December 2013) greater than the statutory limit. A strong risk-bearing capacity acts as a buffer against unexpected losses and creates a basis for the growth of business operations.

Two sets of capital adequacy ratios are calculated for OP-Pohjola Group. The Group's operations are based on the Amalgamations Act which became effective as of 1 July 2010.

Owing to the regulations on joint responsibility and security conditions prescribed in the Act, a minimum amount of capital resources has been set for the amalgamation of the cooperative banks calculated according to the regulations for capital adequacy specified in the Credit Institution Act. The amalgamation of the cooperative banks comprises its central institution (OP-Pohjola Group Central Cooperative), the central Institution's member credit institutions and companies belonging to their consolidation groups. Although OP-Pohjola Group's insurance companies do not belong to the amalgamation of the cooperative banks, investments made in them have a major impact on capital adequacy calculated in accordance with the capital adequacy regulations for credit institutions. This capital adequacy figure is called the amalgamation of cooperative banks' capital adequacy. The statutory minimum for capital adequacy ratio is 8 per cent., and for Tier 1 ratio 4 per cent. In the autumn of 2011, the European Banking Authority ("EBA") set the minimum requirement for the Core Tier 1 ratio at 9 per cent. applying to major European banks including Pohjola Bank.

OP-Pohjola Group is also a financial and insurance conglomerate, pursuant to the Act on the Supervision of Financial and Insurance Conglomerates. The conglomerate is governed by specific provisions of the capital adequacy requirement.

In view of both capital adequacy requirements, we believe that OP-Pohjola Group's risk-bearing capacity is strong.

Capital structure and capital adequacy

The Group has presented its capital base and capital adequacy of 31 March 2014 in accordance with the EU capital requirement regulation and directive (EU 575/2013) (the "CRD IV Regulation") entered into force on 1 January 2014. Comparatives for 2013 are presented according to CRD III in force on 31 December 2013. In addition, an estimate of the figures a year ago under the CRD IV Regulation is presented in column CRD IV Regulation 1 Jan. 2014.

 The risk weight of equity investments includes EUR 6.4 billion in insurance holdings within OP-Pohjola Group. Based on permission from the Financial Supervisory Authority, OP-Pohjola treats insurance holdings as risk-weighted assets according to the PD/LGD method.

 Of the risk weight of "Central government and central banks' exposure", EUR 107 million represent deferred tax assets that are treated with a risk weight of 250% instead of a deduction from common equity tier 1 capital.

OP-Pohjola has applied transitional provisions regarding old capital instruments to supplementary cooperative capital and subordinated loans A total of 80% of the amounts outstanding on 31 December 2012 are included in the capital base.

Negative unrealised valuations are included in common equity tier 1 capital. Positive unrealised valuations are included in tier 2 capital according to a statement issued by the Financial Supervisory Authority.

Under CRD IV Regulation, the Basel I floor does not apply to RWAs and becomes a minimum capital requirement. The table above shows capital resources that exceed the Basel I floor.

The Common Equity Tier 1 (the "CET1") ratio of OP-Pohjola Group, in accordance with CRD IV, stood at 15.5 per cent. and total capital ratio at 18.2 per cent. on 31 March 2014. The estimated capital adequacy ratios exclude Ovy equalisation provisions which de facto cover credit risk, which is one of the most important risks for of OP-Pohjola Group. These equalisation provisions may affect core equity capital through counting them towards equity capital, for example, if loan losses realise or a decision is made to count them towards equity capital. Including OVY's equalisation provisions, the CET1 ratio is estimated as 0.5 percentage points higher than presented above. After the completion of the tender offer, the CET1 and total capital ratio are estimated to be 4.2 percentage points lower. The OVY equalisation provisions also have the effect presented above on the ratios following the completion of the tender offer. The EUR 2.5 billion purchase of Pohjola Bank shares held outside OP-Pohjola Group forms the most substantial item that affects the capital adequacy ratios following the completion of the tender offer. The information presented above is preliminary and involves uncertainty whilst the implementing measures of CRD IV are still being processed.

OP-Pohjola Group's capital adequacy pursuant to the Act on the Supervision of Financial and Insurance Conglomerates is calculated using the consolidation method, whereby assets included in capital resources but not included in equity capital, under the regulations for the banking or insurance industry, are added to the equity capital in the conglomerate's balance sheet. Capital resources may not include items not available for covering the losses of other companies belonging to the conglomerate.

The financial and insurance conglomerate's minimum capital requirement consists of the credit institutions' consolidated minimum capital requirement and the insurance companies' joint minimum operating capital.

The insurance companies' equalisation provision is not included in the financial and insurance conglomerate's capital resources. The equalisation provision acts as a buffer for insurance companies in case of years with heavy losses and is therefore part of the financial services Group's actual buffer against losses.

TAXATION

EU Savings Directive

Under EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC (the "Directive") on the taxation of savings income, each Member State of the European Union (each an "EU Member State") is required to provide to the tax authorities of another EU Member State details of payments of interest or other similar income paid by a person within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in that other EU Member State; however, for a transitional period, Austria and Luxembourg may instead apply a withholding system in relation to such payments deducting tax at a rate of 35 per cent. Luxembourg has announced that it will no longer apply the withholding tax system as from 1 January 2015 and will provide details of payments of interest (or similar income) as from this date.

A number of non-EU countries including Switzerland, and certain dependent or associated territories of certain EU Member States, have adopted similar measures (either provision of information or transitional withholding) in relation to payments made by a person within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in a EU Member State. In addition, the EU Member States have entered into provision of information or transitional withholding arrangements with certain of those dependent or associated territories in relation to payments made by a person in a EU Member State to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in one of those territories.

The Council of the European Union formally adopted a Council Directive amending the Directive on 24 March 2014 (the "Amending Directive"). The Amending Directive broadens the scope of the requirements described above. EU Member States have until 1 January 2016 to adopt the national legislation necessary to comply with the Amending Directive. The changes made under the Amending Directive include extending the scope of the Directive to payments made to, or collected for, certain other entities and legal arrangements. They also broaden the definition of "interest payment" to cover income that is equivalent to interest.

Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

Finnish Taxation

The comments below are of a general nature based on the Bank's understanding of current law and practice in Finland. They relate only to the position of person who are the absolute beneficial owners of the Instruments and Coupons. They may not apply to certain classes of person such as dealers. Prospective holders of the Instruments who are not resident in Finland for tax purposes and are in any doubt as to their personal tax position or who may be subject to tax in any other jurisdiction should consult their professional advisers. It should be noted that the tax laws of Finland may be amended with retroactive effect.

Taxation of Instruments

Under present Finnish domestic tax law payments in respect of the Instruments and the Coupons will be exempt from all taxes, duties and fees of whatever nature, imposed or levied by or within the Republic of Finland or by any municipality or other political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, except such taxation the holder of the Instrument or Coupon to which any such payment relates is subject to thereon by reason of such holder being connected with the Republic of Finland otherwise than solely by the holding of such Instrument or Coupon or the receipt of income therefrom.

Finnish Capital Gains Taxes

Holders of Instruments and Coupons who are not resident in Finland for tax purposes and who do not engage in trade or business through a permanent establishment or a fixed place of business in Finland will not be subject to Finnish duties or taxes on gains realised on the sale or redemption of the Instruments and Coupons.

Foreign account tax provisions of the US Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 (FATCA)

Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("FATCA") impose a new reporting regime and potentially a 30 per cent. withholding tax with respect to certain payments to any non-U.S. financial institution (a "foreign financial institution", or "FFI" (as defined by FATCA)) that does not become a "Participating FFI" by entering into an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to provide the IRS with certain information in respect of its account holders and investors or is not otherwise exempt from or in deemed compliance with FATCA. The Bank is classified as an FFI.

The new withholding regime will be phased in beginning 1 July 2014 for payments from sources within the United States and will apply to "foreign passthru payments" (a term not yet defined) no earlier than 1 January 2017. This withholding would potentially apply to payments in respect of any Instruments characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or after the "grandfathering date", which is the date that is six months after the date on which final U.S. Treasury regulations defining the term foreign passthru payment are filed with the Federal Register, or which are materially modified on or after the grandfathering date. If Instruments are issued before the grandfathering date, and additional Instruments of the same series are issued on or after that date, the additional Instruments may not be treated as grandfathered, which may have negative consequences for the existing Instruments, including a negative impact on market price.

The United States and a number of other jurisdictions have announced their intention to negotiate intergovernmental agreements to facilitate the implementation of FATCA (each, an "IGA"). Pursuant to FATCA and the "Model 1" and "Model 2" IGAs released by the United States, an FFI in an IGA signatory country could be treated as a "Reporting FI" not subject to withholding under FATCA on any payments it receives. Further, an FFI in a Model 1 IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA (or any law implementing an IGA) (any such withholding being "FATCA Withholding") from payments it makes (unless it has agreed to do so under the U.S. "qualified intermediary", "withholding foreign partnership" or "withholding foreign trust" regimes). The Model 2 IGA leaves open the possibility that a Reporting FI might be required to withhold as a Participating FFI on foreign passthru payments. Under each Model IGA, a Reporting FI would still be required to report certain information in respect of its account holders and investors to its home government or to the IRS. The United States and Finland have entered into an agreement (the "US-Finland IGA") based largely on the Model 1 IGA.

The Bank expects to be treated as a Reporting FI pursuant to the US-Finland IGA and does not anticipate being obliged to deduct any FATCA Withholding on payments it makes. There can be no assurance, however, that the Bank will be treated as a Reporting FI, or that it would in the future not be required to deduct FATCA Withholding from payments it makes. The Bank and financial institutions through which payments on the Instruments are made may be required to withhold FATCA Withholding if any FFI through or to which payment on such Instruments is made is not a Participating FFI, a Reporting FI, or otherwise exempt from or in deemed compliance with FATCA.

Whilst the Instruments are in global form and held within Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V. or Clearstream Banking, société anonyme (together, the "ICSDs"), it is expected that FATCA will not affect the amount of any payments made under, or in respect of, the Instruments by the Bank, any paying agent and the Common Depositary and/or Common Safekeeper, given that each of the entities in the payment chain between the Bank and the participants in the ICSDs is a major financial institution whose business is dependent on compliance with FATCA and that any alternative approach introduced under an intergovernmental agreement will be unlikely to affect the securities. The documentation expressly contemplates the possibility that the securities may go into definitive form and therefore that they may be taken out of the ICSDs. If this were to happen, then a non-FATCA compliant holder could be subject to withholding. However, definitive Instruments will only be printed in remote circumstances.

FATCA is particularly complex and its application is uncertain at this time. The above description is based in part on regulations, official guidance and model IGAs, all of which are subject to change or may be implemented in a materially different form. Prospective investors should consult their tax advisers on how these rules may apply to the Bank and to payments they may receive in connection with the Instruments.

The proposed financial transactions tax ("FTT")

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the participating Member States).

The proposed FTT has very broad scope. If introduced in the form proposed on 14 February 2013, it could apply to certain dealings in the Instruments (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Instruments should, however, be exempt.

Under the 14 February 2013 proposal, FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Instruments where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

The FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between the participating Member States. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate, although certain other Member States have expressed strong objections to the proposal. The FTT proposal may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Prospective holders of the Instruments are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Instruments may be sold from time to time by the Bank to any one or more of Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, DZ BANK AG Deutsche Zentral-Genossenschaftsbank, Frankfurt am Main, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Merrill Lynch International, Nomura International plc, Pohjola Bank plc, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc and UBS Limited, (the "Dealers") or to any other person or institution. The arrangements under which Instruments may from time to time be agreed to be sold by the Bank to, and purchased by, Dealers are set out in an amended and restated dealership agreement dated 3 June 2014 (the "Dealership Agreement", which expression shall include any supplements or amendments thereto) and made between the Bank and the Dealers. Any such agreement will inter alia make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Instruments, the price at which such Instruments will be purchased by the Dealers and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by the Bank in respect of such purchase. The Dealership Agreement makes provision for the resignation or renewal of existing Dealers and the appointment of additional or other Dealers.

In connection with the issue under the Programme of any Series of Instruments, a portion of which is offered or sold within the United States or to or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons, the Dealer, who is specified in the Final Terms in relation to the relevant Series of Instruments, may purchase and sell the Instruments in the open market. These transactions may include over-allotment and stabilising transactions, and purchases to cover short positions created in connection with the offering of such Instruments. Stabilising transactions consist of certain bids or purchases for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of such Instruments and short positions involve the sale by the relevant Dealer of a greater number of Instruments than it is required to purchase from the Bank in the offering of such Instruments. The relevant Dealer also may impose a penalty bid, whereby selling concessions allowed to broker-dealers in respect of the Instruments sold in the offering for their account may be reclaimed by the relevant Dealer if such Instruments are repurchased by the relevant Dealer in stabilising or covering transactions. These activities may stabilise, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the Instruments which may be higher than the price that might otherwise prevail in the open market. These transactions may be effected on any stock exchange on which such Instruments are listed, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, and these activities, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. Such stabilising shall be in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and rules.

Selling Restrictions

The United States of America

The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons, except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in the preceding sentence have the meaning given to them by Regulation S.

Instruments in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to U.S. persons, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations. Terms used in the preceding sentence have the meanings given to them by the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code") and regulations thereunder.

Each Dealer has agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree that, except as permitted by the Dealership Agreement, and as described below, it will not offer, sell or deliver the Instruments, (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until forty days after the completion of the distribution of the Instruments comprising the relevant Series, as certified to the Fiscal Agent by such Dealer (or in the case of a sale of a Series of Instruments to or through more than one Dealer by each of such Dealers as to Instruments of such Series purchased by or through it, in which case the Fiscal Agent shall notify each such Dealer when all such Dealers have so certified) within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and it will have sent to each Dealer to which it sells Instruments during the distribution compliance period (other than resales pursuant to Rule 144A) a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Instruments within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons. Terms used in the preceding sentence have the meaning given to them by Regulation S.

In addition, until forty days after the commencement of the offering of Instruments comprising any Series, any offer or sale of Instruments of such Series within the United States by a Dealer that is not participating in the offering may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, a Dealer may offer Registered Instruments in the United States pursuant to Rule 144A to qualified institutional buyers who have been informed by such Dealer that the offer is being made pursuant to Rule 144A. Each purchaser of Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A by accepting delivery of this Base Prospectus and the Registered Instruments, will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

- (i) It is a qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A and it is acquiring such Registered Instruments for its own account or for the account of a qualified institutional buyer over which it exercises sole investment discretion; it is aware, and each beneficial owner of such Registered Instruments has been advised, that the sale of such Registered Instruments to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A.
- (ii) It understands that the Registered Instruments are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering within the meaning of the Securities Act, and that, if in the future it decides to resell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Registered Instruments purchased by it, such transaction would be subject to certain restrictions and conditions set forth in or contemplated by the Fiscal Agency Agreement.
- (iii) It understands that the Registered Instruments purchased by it will bear a legend to the following effect unless otherwise agreed to by the Bank:

THIS INSTRUMENT HAS NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT") AND THE TRANSFER OF THIS INSTRUMENT IS SUBJECT TO CERTAIN CONDITIONS, INCLUDING THOSE SET FORTH IN THE FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT (THE "FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT") DATED AS OF 10 MARCH, 1992, AS AMENDED AND RESTATED ON 3 JUNE 2014, AS AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME, RELATING TO THE INSTRUMENTS. THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING THIS INSTRUMENT, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF POHJOLA BANK PLC (THE "BANK") THAT THIS INSTRUMENT MAY BE RESOLD, PLEDGED, OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED ONLY (1) TO THE BANK OR AN AFFILIATE OF THE BANK, (2) PURSUANT TO RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER OVER WHICH IT EXERCISES SOLE INVESTMENT DISCRETION, WHO THE SELLER HAS INFORMED, IN EACH CASE, THAT THE RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A AND IN CONNECTION THEREWITH A CERTIFICATE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM OF SCHEDULE 9 TO THE FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT IS DELIVERED BY THE PURCHASER TO THE REGISTRAR (AS DEFINED IN THE FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT), (3) PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND IN CONNECTION THEREWITH A CERTIFICATE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM OF SCHEDULE 11 TO THE FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT IS DELIVERED BY THE TRANSFEROR TO THE REGISTRAR, OR (4) OTHERWISE AS SET FORTH IN THE FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT.

- (iv) It acknowledges that the Bank, the Registrar, the Dealers and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements. If it is acquiring any Registered Instruments for the account of one or more qualified institutional buyers, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and that it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements on behalf of each such account.

Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that sellers of the Instruments may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A.

Each purchaser of Instruments sold outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S and each subsequent purchaser of such Instruments in resales prior to the expiration of the distribution compliance period, by accepting delivery of this Base Prospectus and the Instruments, will be deemed to have represented, agreed and acknowledged that:

- (i) It is, or at the time Instruments are purchased will be, the beneficial owner of such Instruments and (a) it is not a U.S. person and it is located outside the United States (within the meaning of Regulation S) and (b) it is not an affiliate of the Bank or a person acting on behalf of such an affiliate.
- (ii) It understands that such Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and that, prior to the expiration of the distribution compliance period, it will not offer, sell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Instruments except (a) in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act to a person that it and any person acting on its behalf reasonably believes is a qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A acquiring such Instruments for its own account, or for the account of a qualified institutional buyer over which it exercises sole investment discretion or (b) in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S, in each case in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any State of the United States.
- (iii) It understands that such Instruments, unless otherwise determined by the Bank in accordance with applicable law, will bear a legend in or substantially in the following form:

"THIS INSTRUMENT HAS NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE U.S. SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT") AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES EXCEPT PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT."
- (iv) It understands that the Bank, the Registrar, the relevant Dealer(s) and their affiliates, and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements.

In addition, a Dealer may arrange for the placement of Registered Instruments with sophisticated U.S. institutional investors under restrictions and other circumstances designed to preclude a distribution that would require registration of the Instruments under the Securities Act. These restrictions also include the delivery of certificates containing representations and agreements as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement, including those set forth in the Eighth Schedule thereto referred to above.

Furthermore, each Series of Instruments will also be subject to such further United States selling restrictions as the Bank and the relevant Dealer or Dealers may agree and as indicated in the relevant Final Terms.

United Kingdom

In relation to each Series of Instruments each Dealer subscribing for or purchasing such Instruments has represented to and agreed with, or will represent to and agree with, the Bank and each other such Dealer (if any) that:

- (a) Financial promotion: it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA")) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Instruments in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA would not, if the Bank was not an authorised person, apply to the Bank; and
- (b) General compliance: it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to any Instruments in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Japan

Each Dealer understands that the Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan (Law No. 25 of 1948, as amended) and, accordingly, each Dealer has undertaken that it will not offer or sell any Instruments, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any Japanese Person or to others for reoffering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to any Japanese Person except under circumstances which will result in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and guidelines promulgated by the relevant Japanese governmental and regulatory authorities and in effect at the relevant time. For the purposes of this paragraph, "Japanese Person" shall mean any person resident in Japan, including any corporation or other entity organised under the laws of Japan.

The Republic of Finland

Each Dealer has agreed that it will not publicly offer the Instruments or bring the Instruments into general circulation in the Republic of Finland other than in compliance with all applicable provisions of the laws of the Republic of Finland and especially in compliance with the Finnish Securities Market Act (Arvopaperimarkkinalaki (746/2012, as amended)) and any regulation made thereunder, as supplemented and amended from time to time.

Republic of Italy

Any such offer, sale or delivery of the Instruments or distribution of copies of the Base Prospectus or any other document relating to the Instruments in the Republic of Italy must be:

- (a) made by investment firms, banks or financial intermediaries permitted to conduct such activities in the Republic of Italy in accordance with Legislative Decree No. 385 of 1 September 1993 legislative Decree No. 58 of 24 February 1998, CONSOB Regulation No. 16190 of 29 October 2007 in each case as amended from time to time; and
- (b) in compliance with any other applicable laws and regulations or requirement imposed by CONSOB or any other Italian authority.

General

Other persons into whose hands the Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by the Bank and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Instruments or possess, distribute or publish this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

The Dealer Agreement provides that the Dealers shall not be bound by any of the restrictions relating to any specific jurisdiction (set out above) to the extent that such restrictions shall, as a result of change(s) or change(s) in official interpretation, after the date hereof, of applicable laws and regulations, no longer be applicable but without prejudice to the obligations of the Dealers described in the paragraph headed "General" above.

Selling restrictions may be supplemented or modified with the agreement of the Bank.

Dealers Transacting with the Bank

- 10. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, the Bank and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Bank or Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Bank routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Bank consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Instruments issued under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Instruments issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

11. Yield

The yield of each Tranche of Instruments set out in the applicable Final Terms will be calculated as of the relevant issue date on an annual or semi-annual basis using the relevant issue price. It is not an indication of future yield.
